A Message from the Principal's Desk...

Dear Students:

The Great Augustine (354-430) left a record of his conversion, his realization of the presence of God in creation, his sudden awareness that a world without a Father-Creator was not logical. Let his words tell the story:

*"Late have I loved you, O beauty ever ancient, ever new, late have I loved you! You were within me, but I was outside, and it was there that I searched for you. In my unlovliness, I plunged into the lovely things which you created. You were with me but I was not with you. Created things kept me from you; yet if they had not been in you they would not have been at all.
You called, you shouted, and broke through my deafness. You flashed, you shone, and you dispelled my blindness. You breathed a fragrance on me; I drew in breath and now I pant for you, I have tasted you, now I hunger and thirst for more. You touched me, and I burned for peace."*

-St. Augustine, The Confessions.

A young student approached St. Augustine and asked that he might study and come to know Jesus Christ so that he might have belief. St. Augustine answered by telling him to first believe, then he will come to know.

St. Michael's is a place which operates by Faith. Daily, the school community gathers in the name of Jesus, first in prayer and then in the truth of God's presence and plan through Mathematics, Literature, Science, Athletics and Art.

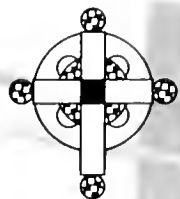

The young come to St. Mike's motivated: by the school's athletic program, by family tradition of attending St. Mike's, by a desire for a Catholic Education, or a search for academic excellence. Whatever the reason, each student, in his five years at St. Mike's, must discern his relationship with the source of his life - his relationship with God. This was the intention of the Basilians who founded our school, and it is the intention of today's staff as they coach, teach, guide, and comfort students.

Augustine's faith-logic experience of God as Father and Creator is St. Michael's objective for every student.

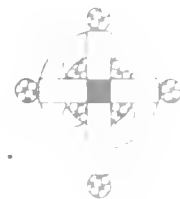

In Christ,

Fr. T. F. Mohan C.S.B.

In Memoriam - Father Paul Sheehan, C.S.B.

Father Paul Sheehan was a member of the congregation of St. Basil and taught for forty years at our school, educating St. Michael's men in physics, mathematics and industrial arts. He was a St. Catharine's native coming from a family renowned in that area for their plumbing and heating contracting.

Father Sheehan came to Toronto where he received his academic education with the Basilian Fathers and graduated from the University of Toronto. The priesthood interested him and was compatible with his desire of becoming a teacher. In addition to his skills in teaching mathematics and science, Father was commissioned by the Separate School Board to design and produce equipment for use in the Board's schools. When the study of the building arts became part of Ontario's curriculum, Father used his extensive knowledge to set up courses that gave students both theory and practice. Many of his former students are now practicing architects and builders and give eloquent testimony that Father's demand for absolute perfection is the basis for their present success.

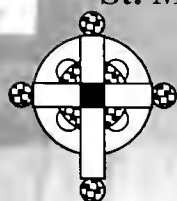

In recent years, Father was responsible for the construction of the newer buildings and for the renovation to the school's chapel - all with the help of his students. Students will remember working with him on the Glen Mary residence as well as the monumental task of erecting the residence with over thirty rooms at Strawberry Island, the Basilians' summer home. One former student remarked that Father Sheehan insisted on unreserved commitment to the job on hand though he never failed to impart the importance of each individual's personal qualities. He often referred to students under his tutelage as "my boys".

Father Paul Sheehan will be greatly missed by his family, his brother priests and other teachers, and certainly by the many students with whom he worked for over forty years at St. Michael's.

R. I. P.

Fr. Sheehan about to tackle a new project.

SKI DAZE

WHOA !!

You forgot your skies Frank!

For no real apparent reason Ed broke out singing the theme from Cabaret.

What exactly do you mean by rat-burgers?

Everyone had fun on ski day except Paul.

Harold, your board goes on the other end.

Stop or you'll tip us overrrrrrrr.....

After an hour of searching they still couldn't find the ski rack.

The entire bus fell into a deep catatonic state after somebody unshoed their foot.

WHOA x 2

I can see the school from here.

I survived the bunny hills!

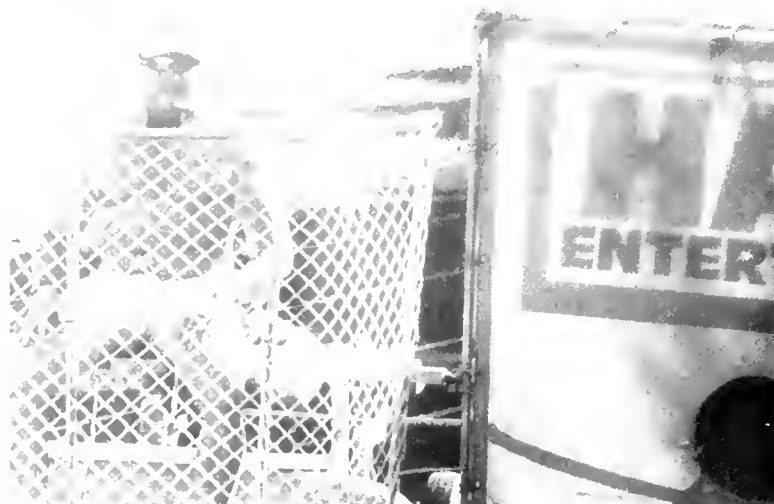

Bunny hills are next on my list!

The bar is off limits unless you have a B.Ed.

She's throwing the bouquet.

Your accuracy will affect your final mark.

...n't gonna like this one bit but if Mr. Quinn
... then we're in deep dodo.

Plethora of Pictures

Everyone is coming on Ski Day right RIGHT

Upsidedown??? Looks fine from this point of view

We're just taking up space.

HELP!!

We want to be GAP models.

What's the answer to number four.

Hey pal I got a great deal for you on a stolen computer.

School's out.

Kevin prays while the next guy hoorays.

Hot 103.5 all the way.

call people Ralph because I can not remember their actual names.

Broken??? Walk around a bit on it and you'll feel better.

C'mon Rob what is in that drink?

The year book discriminates against short people.

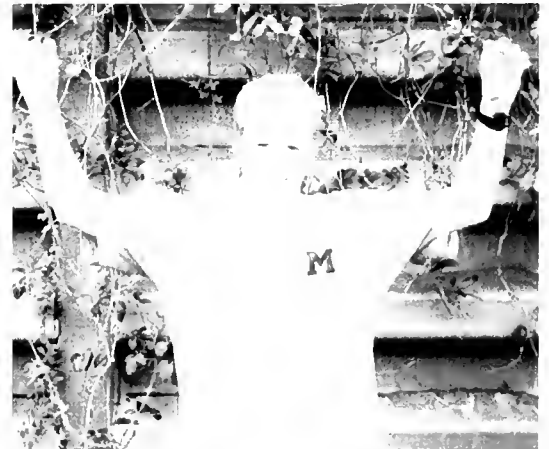

SMC Runs Amuck

Everyone needs a little help from his friends.

Today free cable - tomorrow the world.

Call Nike, I've won the niner run and I am looking for an endorsement.

I'll call it Coca-Cola Pepsi and I'll be rich. RICH I tell you!!!!

Check out the old people.

The ball went into that little hole. Now what do we do?

Kevin, have you ever watched Tiny Toons....I mean really watched it?

Help... we can't take anymore of Mr. Quinn's horrible puns.

Don't talk with your mouth full.

Guys, how many times do I have to tell you. Lens cap off.

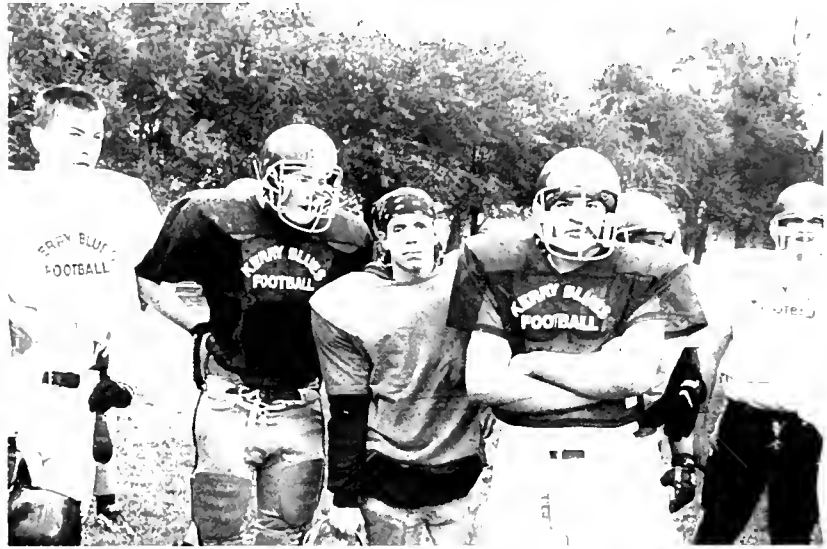

Only 243 more days untill the U2 concert in October. Why that's only 5832 hours; in minutes..

Retrospectacus

C'mon ...trust me.

So do you think they'll play us ever?

Uh Paul shouldn't you be playing?

What do you mean by the "BIG NEEDLE"?

Looks like a medium straight jacket to me.

Check out this pool pass I got for half price!

- OUR YEAR IN REVIEW

Put it in the truck, throw the sheet over it and no one will be the wiser

Hmm... X-Files or Family Matters. Boy, this is harder than subject selection.

Let's take it from the top. "The wheels on the bus go...."

I can't bear to watch.

Coach, it's time you consider therapy.

OK, guys just nod and smile and maybe they'll go away.

The Semi-Formal Snowfall '97

The Fantasticks

ANOTHER FANTASTICK SMC DRAMA PRODUCTION!

AS SOME OF YOU MAY ALREADY KNOW, THE ST. MICHAEL'S DRAMA SOCIETY PERFORMED, IN NOVEMBER OF 1996, THE LONGEST RUNNING OFF-BROADWAY MUSICAL - THE FANTASTICKS. FEATURING A CLOSELY KNIT CAST OF EIGHT, THIS PRODUCTION WAS ONE OF ST. MICHAEL'S FINEST - DUE LARGELY TO THE TUTELAGE OF FATHER ROBERT MCKINNON, C.S.B., MR. NICK RACANELLI, AND MR. PAUL PIEIRKILWICZ. THE HARD WORK OF THESE MEN AND OF ALL THE ACTORS PAID OFF IN THE FOUR STUNNING PERFORMANCES GIVEN. THE FANTASTICKS IS A PLAY WHICH COMBINES FANTASY, HUMOUR, AND INSIGHT INTO A PLEASING AND VISUALLY APPEALING MASTERPIECE. IT IS THE FAIRY-TALE TOLD BY A SPANISH BANDIT, OF A BOY, A GIRL, TWO FATHERS, AND A WALL, AS WELL AS SOME ACTORS MET ALONG THE WAY.

EL GALLO - PROFESSIONAL ABDUCTOR, ROMANTIC, SHALER OF LANCIES, AND WORLDLY-WISE ADVENTURER, EL GALLO IS THE SPANISH 'BANDITO' WHO SERVES AS BOTH A NARRATOR AND A MAIN CHARACTER. TO PLAY SUCH A COMPLEX AND DEMANDING ROLE, NEWCOMER JASON DE LUCA WORKED HARD AND LONG. IT WAS WELL WORTH IT, AS JASON BROUGHT HIS CHARACTER TO LIFE AND GAVE PERFORMANCES WHICH ASTOUNDED THE CAST AS WELL AS THE AUDIENCE. THE CAST WOULD LIKE TO GIVE JASON THE M.I.A. AWARD (MOST IMPROVED ACTOR).

Matt - Simplicity... Simplicity... Simplicity... - Matt is told to write out 'simplicity' 500 times by his father in order to rid him of his romantic and idealistic notions. A young man of twenty who thinks he knows everything, Matt falls in love with the girl next door against his father's wishes. After he saves her from attacking Indians, however, their parents "agree" to the marriage. But married life is not what he expects, and he goes off to seek his fortune. Peter Cousins gave excellent and exciting performances, and has been named Best Improviser of the Year.

Louisa - A sixteen-year-old girl who greets birds, combs her hair until it turns blue, and loves to lash her ears, Louisa longs to be a princess, to have an adventure, or to take her hair down and go swimming in a stream. She falls in love with Matt against her father's wishes, but after the marriage she is also disillusioned. She goes off with El Gallo to see the world and just dance, but she is horrified by what she sees. Played by the lovely Kelly Hodson, Louisa is the epitome of a young female with her head in the clouds. Kelly's excellent voice amazed all. Kelly has been awarded "Feminist of the Year" for wanting "much more than keeping house", and bringing a feminine touch to the all male cast.

Bellomy - A button-maker and gardener extra-ordinaire, Bellomy pretends to feud with his neighbour so that their children will fall in love. After the marriage, when the gardens are merged, Bellomy is infuriated because Huckleby stands in his cumquats; but eventually everything ends well. Ed Cummings gave an outstanding performance as an asthmatic old man and his dancing was especially notable. Ed will be honoured with the life-time achievement award for his contribution to the St. Michael's theatre.

Huckleby - A former marine and connoisseur of plants, the gout-ridden Huckleby teams up with Bellomy to secretly arrange their children's marriage by hiring a professional abductor to stage a kidnapping of Louisa. It is also Huckleby, however, who tells the children that the marriage was arranged, causing the children to bicker and leave each other. Played hilariously by Martin Chodorek, Huckleby was a funny and interesting character. Martin was named "Most Friendly to the Chorographer".

The Mute - Played by Matthew Trallord, does not say much, but instead serves as the wall, provides the rain, snow, leaves, and other props. Matthew's straight-faced performance left audiences speechless. Matthew was awarded the "straightest wall" award by the CSA.

Henry - This English actor plays both an Indian and a Pirate and provides some humour and adventure in the play. Newcomer Damien Rvall made people laugh until they cried as the Shakespearean actor Henry, and is awarded the Funny Niner medallion. We hope to see more of this promising young actor.

Mortimer - What more can be said about Nicolas Pappalardo's portrayal of Henry's dim-witted companion? A superlative death scene will be etched in our memories forever. Nicolas receives the "Best Foreign Accent in a Small Part" award.

The cast would like to thank the stage-crew for spending eight grueling weeks to build a box. (Flimsy though it was.)

The Fantasticks was a great play, don't you wish you'd seen it?

AUGURI MR. GRASSI

CONGRATULATIONS TO MR.
GRASSI ON HIS 25TH YEAR OF TURNING STUDENTS INTO STARS
AS DIRECTOR OF THE SAINT
MICHAEL'S ITALIAN PLAY.

The weekend November performance consisted of three short skits and Franco Roberto's "Onesto Rubamai, Marito Nei Guai." The play deals with a wife who tests her husband's claims of honesty by leaving an anonymous note with 20,000,000 lire on his desk. The play starred SMC Italian play veterans:

Fabio Settecase, who speaks Italian without an accent and is now being question by Italian military officials as to why he did not fill out a draft card .

Vito Cammisa whose performance can be compared to the greats like Kirk Douglas, Charleton Heston and the Three Stooges.

Giorgio Scoeco, who fears playing the boyfriend to the same girl in a play two years in a row might constitute some form of common law marriage. The cast was rounded out with Mario DeCicco, Adrianna Villa, Clara Lofaro and Antoinette De Simini, who gave an excellent performance as expected for any Italian play cast.

Staff

When I first came on the staff, it was dominated by Basilians, in fact there were only five of us laymen teaching here. That was in the 1960's. There were Basilians everywhere. There were the older ones on the permanent staff and the others - the younger unordained ones - who used to come to teach in the afternoon. They would then stay on to coach teams - there were a lot of house leagues going on. As well there would be "staff versus students" games, especially in hockey and basketball. These games would draw full houses. September twenty-ninth (the feast of Saint Michael) was the traditional staff/student golf day. The composition of the staff has changed slowly as the Basilians became fewer, and more lay teachers were hired. I remember Winifred Widmar, our first lady lay teacher, who taught French. In spite of all the changes, the spirit of Saint Michael's continues undiminished.

In September of nineteen hundred and fifty-four I was a fledgling, a scrawny, petrified little niner - really! Not only were you not born but some of your Moms and Dads weren't either. Back in those middle ages a lot of caring people (like now) were part of the St. Michael's community. In those opening days of my grade nine year, I had myself into such a conscientious knot trying to be perfect that I got sick! I had mixed all my notes for all my subjects on the same few pages of one notebook. Algebra terrifies me and I had no idea of what was important in history and I couldn't get my act together to get to Phys. Ed. - I was a mess... so I got sick. I couldn't keep food down and I had one continuous headache for four days. My Mom had to call the school - teachers and classmates were so helpful when I came back. I got on the right track and enjoyed every minute of school here.

I was nervous when I entered St. Mike's, accompanied by only four other boys from my elementary school and not knowing much about the school we were about to enter. I only knew that I wanted to graduate and go to university, and all four of us made it after our St. Michael's experience.

I soon heard about the excellent athletic tradition at St. Michael's, as well as the academic side. My beginning with sports, however, was dismal -- I was cut from Mr. Dignan's Bantam Basketball team. But after asking him how I could improve and practising over the summer, I made it the next year! Meanwhile I went out for track and after several years I had both an OFSAA gold medal for triple jump and a 3rd place finish in the OFSAA Senior Basketball Tournament. I had really lived part of the St. Mike's tradition.

When I reflect on what St. Mike's has passed on to me I see two intertwined traditions. First I see the obvious striving for academic, athletic, and artistic excellence-- I call this the manifest tradition.

Second I see the conviction that life has a supernatural end and that we begin working toward that end here and now. I call this the silent tradition. Common to both of these is the notion of success which holds that we will reach our goal if we remain open to the action of God in our lives.

Our school colours represent the double tradition. As the colours of Mary, the double blue stand for the person who manifested God in an exemplary fashion because of her silent openness to the presence of God in her life.

When I attended St. Mike's, the school was housed in an old building. We didn't have a gym nor a cafeteria, but we did have great spirit. We had pep assemblies in our old lunch room. We cheered enthusiastically at the Gardens in support of our Majors.

What the old school had and the new doesn't is young Basilians. They taught us, they coached us, they patrolled the halls. They were great men to talk to. In those days, St. Mike's had many vocations to the Basilians. What happened? I've met many students over the years who would make wonderful priests. Sacrifice was difficult in those days. It's difficult today. I have to ask-- aren't there any young men in our school who are willing to serve God as priests?

Student Council shows how to put it all together

The Student Council of the past year has accomplished many worthwhile objectives. The Student Council is the voice and the strength of the whole student body and their particular emphasis is to focus the student body on many worthwhile projects. We can see that leadership is the most wanted ingredient in this important body, and under the guidance of their moderator, Mr. John Walsh a great list of projects served to uplift and animate the students.

St. Michael's College School

Prefects

St. Michael's Prefects are chosen for certain personal qualities. One who is chosen, has over a number of years, displayed a belief in the ideals of the school and is able to communicate this well to his peers by his own good example. The Prefects serve as channels for communicating between the administration and the student body, gathering ideas from the students and by discussing them with the school authorities to advocate constructive measures. Finally, the Prefects help keep school morale and spirit at its peak.

In June of 1972 I sat in a pew in Holy Rosary Church and heard the Father Norman Jitzpatrick C.S.B. address my graduating class about the new world we were about to enter. Little did we know how true his words would be and how important the lessons (some of them rather difficult) we learned at 1515 Bathurst St. would be in the years to come.

"In my professional life, I have rarely gone through a week without meeting someone who has a commonality with St. Michael's. Whether it be an old classmate or a teacher at a social event or a former opponent from the ice or field who is now across the table at a board meeting, the respect and integrity that was part of our tutoring always prevail. Goodness, discipline and knowledge are the virtues I continue to adhere to."

Yours truly

SMC

Adarna, Shaun

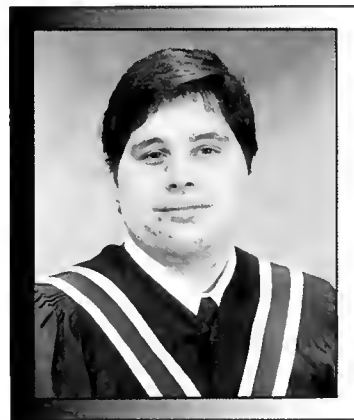

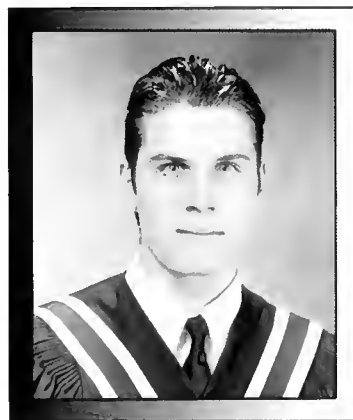

Two years inside these yellow bricks and it's been fun !Senior Kerry Blues, Senior B Basketball, all were fun but short-lived.I'll never forget SMC for all the lessons it taught me politics.life..need I say more? Don't let the memories and the spirit fade away. A special shout to those who stood by me,to my family and my friends.

Ahlowalia, Davis
The hard work, the good times,the fun times the stressful times truly did make me into a St.Michael's man.For the memorable and enjoyable years I would like to thank God, my parents and the teachers.

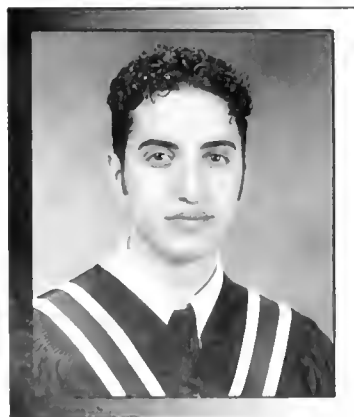

Aldridge, Grant
St. Mike's has equipped you with the tools to handle life and bring you success and happiness.

Angelini, Rene
As I leave here it wil not be the yellow walls that I will miss but the good times I had within them. To the boys-keep in touch. To the teachers, thanks for the help and encouragement.There were many classic moments:Wasaga getaways, 19th birthday.Acapulco '97, night of the fog etc..

Aragon, Claudio
Congratulations on your record at SMC. Keep up the good work - we're all cheering for you.

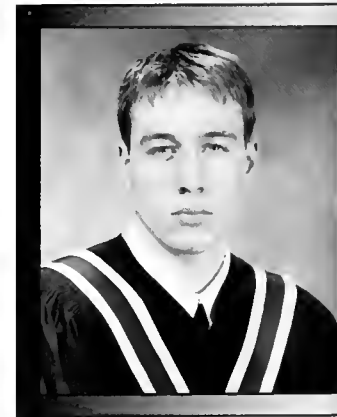

Basso, Andrew

*Two roads diverged in a little bush
But me and my Joe walked away.*
Thanks to all my cell-mates that made the days more bearable.I will not soon forget the Italian play (X2), coaching calcetto, and reffing calcetto. Special thanks to Mom and Dad for sacrificing their bank account to the tuition gods !

Bates, Jeremy

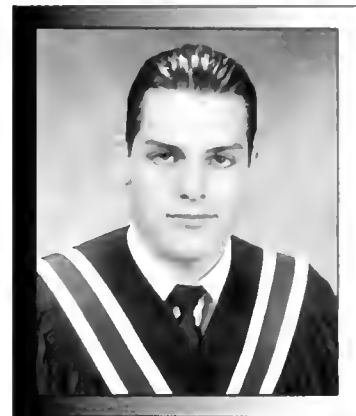

Nine and Ten dances were good ("Mad Dog") so too were Rock Nights- before I was booted.. The jokes while hanging in the weight room with the tough guys were worth my spares.The couple of church parties might have been nice to remember- but I remember the semi - that was fun.

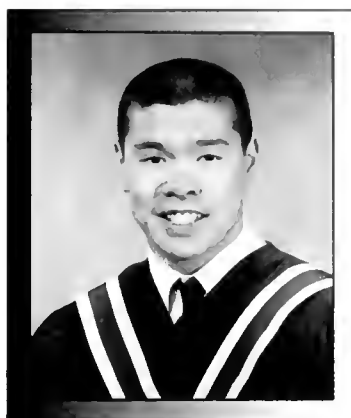

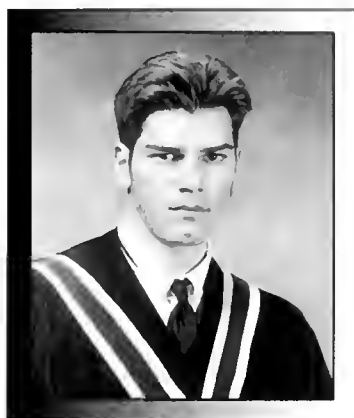

Bellosillo, Bryan
*Of heroes rediscovered and heroes re-born
 The champions of the earth are but mortal men,
 Their passing however is inevitable...
 But their legacy will endure, so long*

Benedet, Alex
 It was fun but I gotta split.
 The good times are just about to begin. I still have time for memories of my bunning crew and those who didn't bother me these five years. More memories are: "Polco '96, Chin
 '96, Hallowe'en '96, the clubs and the beaving. I just want to send my love to God, to my parents - thanks for the 25 G's

Benineasa, Jordan
 Your education has given you an insight to the great ideas and thoughts of the wise. Continue your efforts - develop yourself as a Christian person serving God in your lifetime.

Bernardino Robert
 The mark of excellence has been put on you by your attendance at St. Mike's.
 Be true to its ideals and a good example to others.

Best, Greg Things that I'll never forget are:
 Sr. A hockey TDCAA champs
 '97, the Metro Bowl (getting there) road trips and OFSAA
 '97, I'll remember locker # 510, not having a key to the Student Council Office, travelling to the Tower of Terror "Sports is my business" '96-'97. It was five years of scamming and cramming but I actually graduated.

Bolla, Michael
 The long and winding road, many years, many tears, I remember: dirty old town, the bombs, the games, the SMC staff, Where should I put the cat?
 (In the kitimat), modern western, Art, bio, geo, philo. To the boyz, I say: If I don't see you in this world I'll catch you on the next and don't be late.
 Farewell, Lamina Mraf!

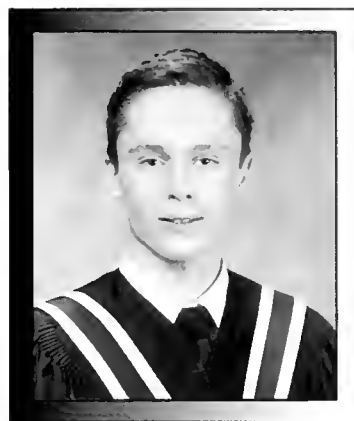

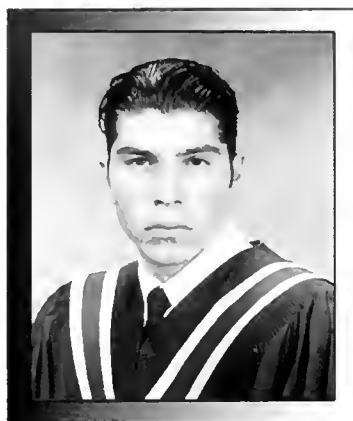

Bonnin, Jeffrey
It's been the best of times, it's been the worst of times. -Charles Dickens Although I wasn't the smartest student to enter these hallowed, yellowed walls, I sure won't be the last. It's been the best five years of my life. Huge thanks to the folks who put up $20 000 to keep me here. See you at the reunions when I'm a millionaire. Just remember when all else fails page 19 of The Practical Sytlist.

Boragina, Giuseppe
 "Woohah" (Busta Rhymes, Paul Pryzbylo). It has been a great five years of hard work, fun and memories. Memories are:
 Buzzer games, '96 golf tournament, all the sports (go Double Blue) and especially track championships and Metro Bowl.
 Remember Joe
 "Peppe", "Bocconcino" Boragina says, "SMC is #1."

Bottoni, David
You were a great asset to the school
- remember you're double blue till your through and even after that.

Bradel ,Borys
I would like to thank everyone who made my past five years at St.Mikes an enjoyable and learning experience. Thanks to my parents for making five years at St.Mikes possible.

Breda, Denis

Thanks to: Holmes and the heast, Best's antics,Zavodny's heckling
Grigg's Sebring,Grant's ginger

Brown, Paddy

I will remember Senior B hockey,City champs '96, great coaches x2,wrestling, TD's
'96,Mr.Fischer and the P.C. club,Charest's visit. Thanks go out to all the teachers and Father Mohan for his unwavering dedication.We have gone to the greatest school, we live in the greatest country so let's make the most of it.

Cahill, Brendan

Game day ...for the great Gaels of mad, for all their wars are merry, and all their songs are sad!(Chesterton).

After the game: They never drank water but whiskey by the pints, and their shanty towns rang with their songs and their fights. (The Pogues) Fellow Students I don't know half of you half as well as I should like and I like less than half of you half as well as you deserve.(The Lord of the Rings). Pogue Mahone

Callaghan, Michael

The wisdom I gained here was like no other.I learned to live and learn and some other things.I'll remember English class in Gr. 11 among other ones.PC parties, snoozing in class-Grade Eleven was like a blur. I want to thank my parents for sending me here and my teachers for putting up with me. I'll try my luck at Western.

Cammisa,Vito
Boys were done,'speets to the twelvers and the cakes and all my boys (you know who you are). We leave with memories of Italian play '95 ,flexing in Physics etc., - to all who follow. I've done my time, its your turn, and to my parents I owe you.

Cappizano,Marco
We hope the memories of you r days here will always cheer you on your way.

Carcone, Steven

I would like to thank the staff at St.Mike's for giving me the best education money can buy.To talk about memories: Religion, English with Father Enright, Physical Geo with Mr. Shannon.. also Calcietto, OAC Physics and Chem..Anyways I'm outa here..CIAO!

Cartagena, John

Every obstacle that I have come across has only made me stronger. The most influential thing: being a good man is being a strong man.Because of the love and encouragement given me by my poarents I am able to overcome any obstacle.Thanks to ther school for the discipline and knowledge.

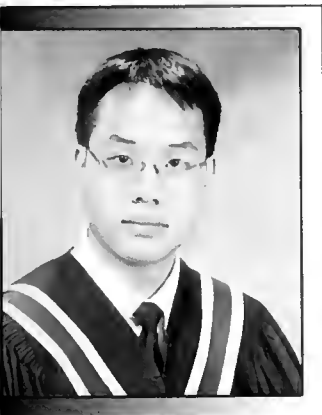

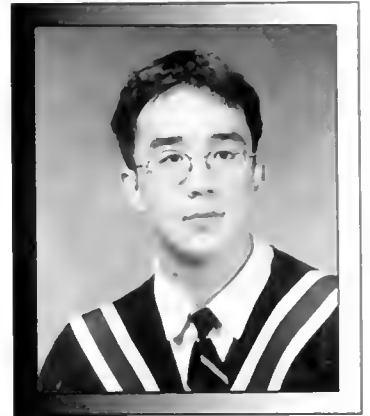

Cattapan, Mark

When things get tough in the future remember the double blue never quits.

Chan, Gordon

We hope your future will see much happiness and success.

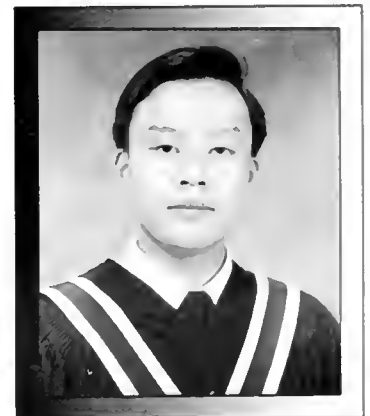

Chau, Douglas

My whole-hearted thanks to all my teachers and my fellow-students for a great five years.I was enriched academically, matured socially and I developed spiritually.Thanks and good luck to each of us in the future.

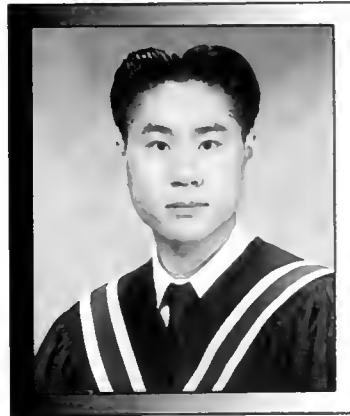

Cheung,Victor

In order to survive at SMC I learned to work like a machine.In order to excel at SMC I learned to play like a machine.My classroom activity was balanced by "Reach for the Top" ,Band and Chess..Too much of anything is bad for you , but you can never have too many friends.

Choi, Steven

So much to say- five years have come to an end in the blink of an eye. Seems it was yesterday we were pushed around as niners; now that it's our time to be at the top of the totem pole , we're off to university.Thanks to God, my parents, friends and teachers.Go double blue!

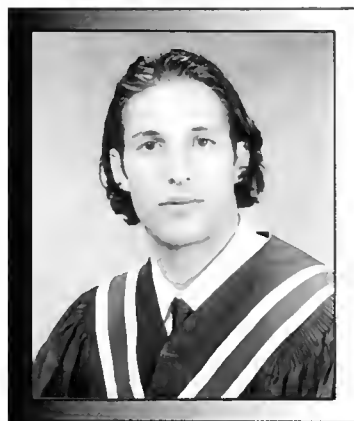

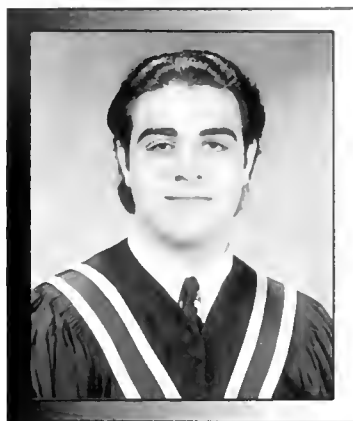

Chu, Gregory

Now we begin descent to where we've never been, there is no going back, this wasn't meant to last, this is hell on earth, we were meant to serve and she will never learn bye bye, baby goodbye. The hard work demanded by St. Mike's has paid off and now I'm ready to journey onwards. Life's a gamble, so be a player.

Ciccolini, Robert

The godfather's reign has come to an end. "Chicks" values his years at SMC! Good times were had, morals imbedded with memories to last forever, phenoms, incroyable, car pools, Venice, stage crew, Sr. A Hockey, all the boys and Acapulco. A special thanks and gratitude to my loving parents cheerful Marisa and "alarm clock" Max. All that we ask is that you do your best". MC'

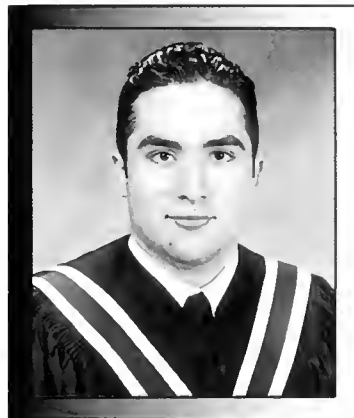

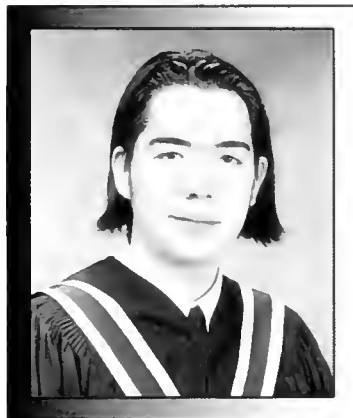

Cinelli, David

Thanks to all the teachers, coaches, players and students that made my five years at St. Mike's so enjoyable. I won't forget T DCAA Champions for the Junior Double Blues (Gr. 9). OFSAA Grade 11, many memorable classes, wrestling (in the caf.) and play fighting with the boyz. It's been great.

Claridge, Matthew

As a Grade Niner it seemed such a long time. Now I leave these halls a little older and a little wiser and many memories: NBA jam sessions, Coffee shop lunches in Grade Twelve, OAC lunches at DAS, many sporting events and classes.

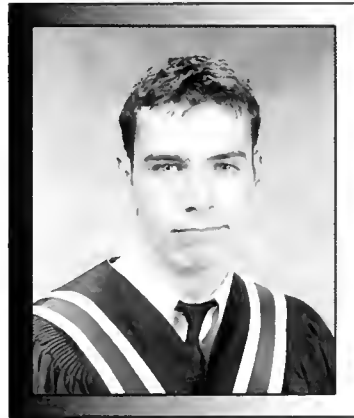

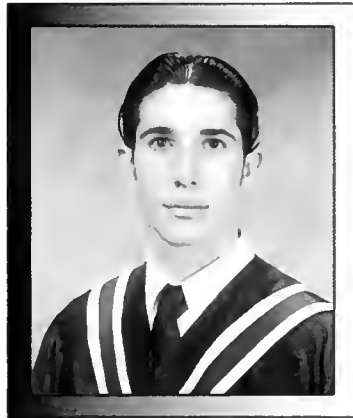

Conforzi, John

Through the years he's changed somehow. He's different now. He's different now."
Neil Young.
Things I remember: ice-fishing championships, massaging the data in Can. Geo., the weight room after school, Grade 12 shop with Father Sheehan, (when in doubt, use the bosche!) football practice, TDCAA, Toronto Bowl x2 and the Dome 96

Creta, Tony

Hey, boys! It's been an amazing five years. There are memories such as, Biology with Marchetti (I don't know what we learned), Calcietto at lunch, Brisc champs with Jordan, period five spare, Senior soccer, Del tournament, and especially the boys at the pit. Good luck to all.

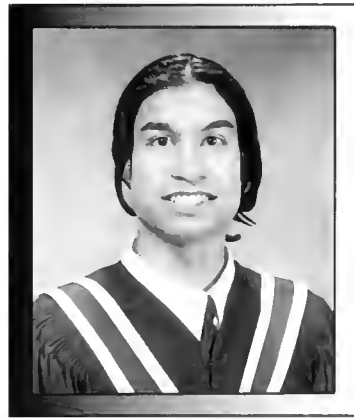

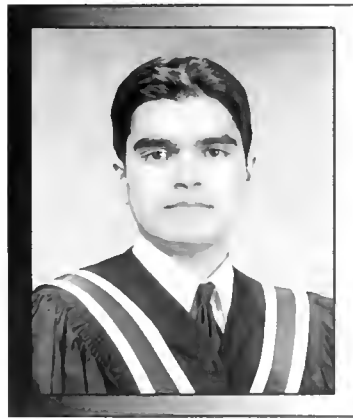

Currie, Daniel

Five years have made me realize that our school's strength lies in its student body. Thanks to Mr. Vitullo and Mr. Zanardo for developing me as a player and a person. Also thanks to Sister Frances for making me literate and Mr. Shust for showing me how to calculate.

D'Mello, Brendan

You would think that after five years of English I would be more creative and after five years of Religion I would have something to say and after five years of Math I'd have something to prove. I'd like to thank SMC for all the memories! Especially thanks to the Music Department, the Choir and all my teachers and family.

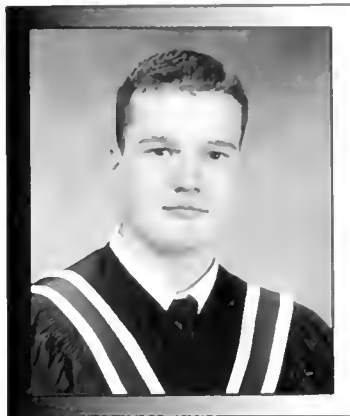

D'Sousa, Adam

Hi, my name's Adam and I'm an alcoholic. The five year program at SMC has been quite a trip! Respect is given to both friends and foes. Especially Mighty Mouse, Pretty Boy, 100% more, and Will GQ. I've walked the path between good and evil, Between light and dark, I still walk along the knife blade edge. Striving forward, never looking back. 'Til our paths cross again...

D'Souza, Marc

The hard work of five years shows in your ability to graduate and go on to higher things. Good luck in the future and think of all of us

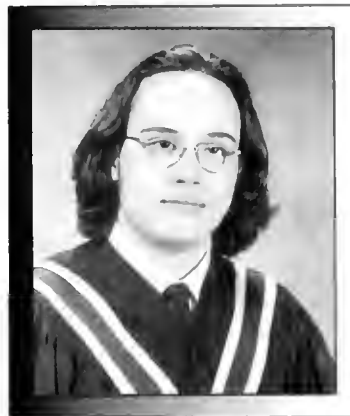

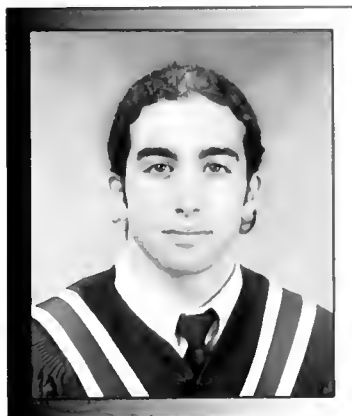

Dailyde, Paul

Thanks to all the teachers, students that made my five years at St. Mike's so enjoyable. I won't forget the DCAA Championships for the Junior Double Blues (Gr. 9). OFSAA Grade 11, many memorable classes, wrestling (in the cal.) and play fighting with the boys. It's been great.

De Ciantis, Devin

As a Grade Niner it seemed such a long time. Now I leave these halls a little older and a little wiser and many memories: NBA jam sessions, Coffee shop lunches in Grade Twelve, OAC lunches at DAS, many sporting events and classes.

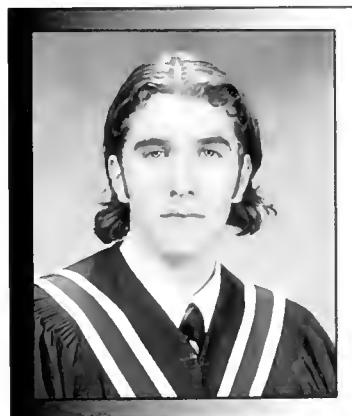

De Luca, Alessandro

*I'm ready, Ready for what's next,
Ready to duck,
Ready to dive Ready to say
I'm glad to be alive
I'm ready, ready for the gridlock
I'm ready to take it to the street
Ready for the shuffle
Ready for the deal.
I'm ready, (U'2)
And it only took five years. Maybe it's just ISU fever but I'll miss the shelter of the yellow bricks when I'm gone*

DeLuca, Darrin

Good luck as you progress in your career your success here is a good start. Put St. Mike's into your future

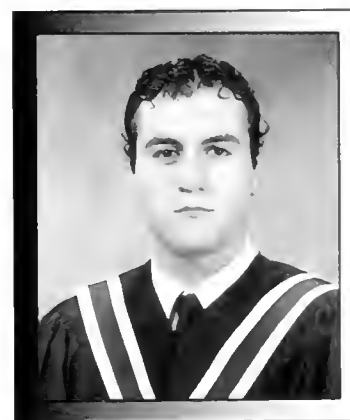

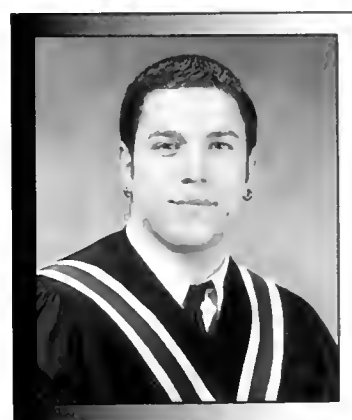

Dejneka, Wolodomyr

Life's a journey not a destination. Aerosmith Five long stressful years have closed another chapter in my life
Gr. 12 homerooms, bell runs, OAC Physics, the plays,
Football, the Dome '96
Thanks to all my friends for a great five years, to my teachers and coaches and especially to my parents for always being there for me.

D'Mello, Brendan

You would think that after five years of English I would be more creative and after five years of Religion I would have something to say and after five years of Math I'd have something to prove...I'd like to thank SMC for all the memories!

Especially thank the Music Department, the Choir and all my teachers and family

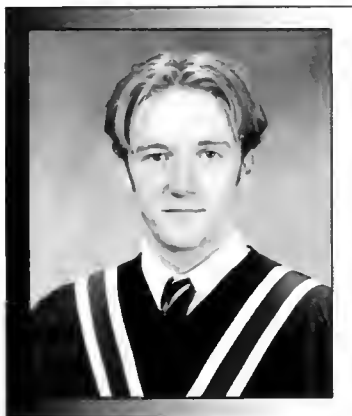

Di Mauro, Daniel

Good luck in your future career with St. Michael as your helper, giving you strength

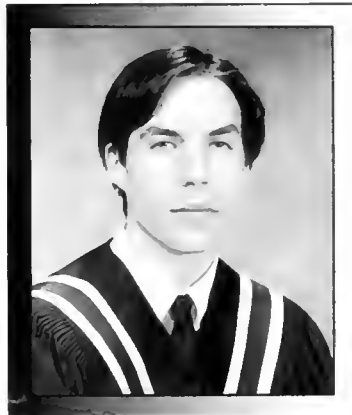

Dorri, Sam

*I want to run, I want to hide
I want to tear down the walls that hold me inside
I want to reach out and touch the flame!
Ann arbour in my future, Ireland in my past Drinking nights in Temple Bar really was a blast.
Running days on Dalkley Hill
Morning and sea breeze chill
Silver and gold in my mind's eye
Keeping me alive,

To the tune of five.*

Downs, Chris

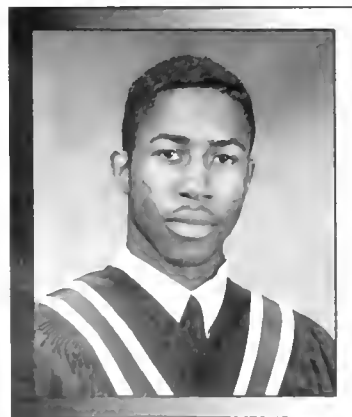

The crew - thanks for being there .through thick and thin .guys- then there were the experiences: Metrobowl '95/96, New Year' s '97 and a lead pipe and The Hip . Thanks guys and God bless.
So out went the candle and we were left darkling - The Fool .King Lear

Dymond, Paul

Thanks. I would like to parents friends, 12:00 dismissal Mr. L and W. and everyone else .I couldn't forget "We're Dead"
Everyman, Moose, Ski-day Gr. 10, also Gr. 10 English video, Hawk ,all the jokes, Goodbye.
All these places have their moments.

J.Lennon

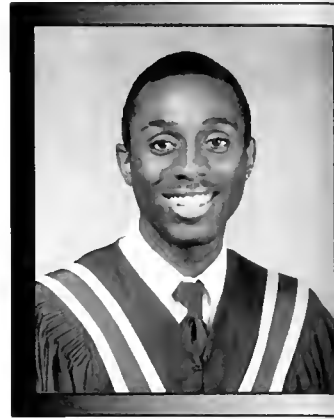

Forbes, Duncan

Sixty -seven exams have made me into the happiest man alive. V-ball . OFSAA '96, B-ball OFSAA '94, OFSAA '95 in track was fun also. Thanks to God, my parents, the staff and Father Mohan for not letting me drift off to Xanadu, the painless place. Thanks to Beaver Foods for providing such delicious nourishing and thrifty lunches. Also I must give a shout out to Mr. Ling and his fellow bob-cats and to St.Mikes for the memories.

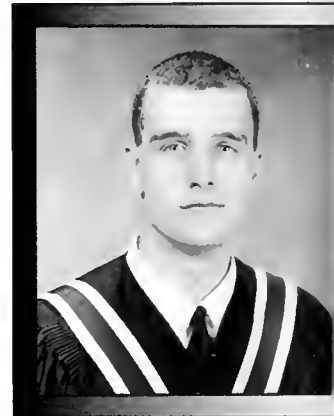

Downs, Kurt

When backed against the wall .I always strike Back like the empire. My eyes display the brightest fire
Try to extinguish it and get burnt
By my burning desires.
Those who refuel the flame will receive warmth.
There are memories of volleyball, basketball, OFSAA track '94, '95, '97, lunch room jokes, football and the Buzzers. Thanks to Moms,

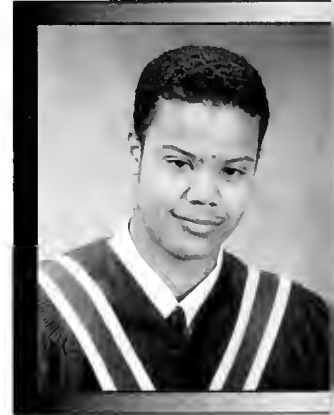

Dyl, Michael

"Every little thing is going to be all right" Bob Marley.
Now that we are at the end of our journey here at St.Mikes 's .I can definitely say it was not a smoothly paved road..The lessons I have learned and the friends I have made will last .

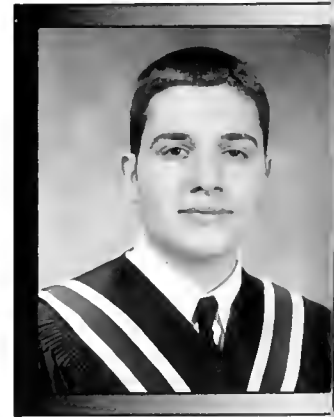

Farnum, Stewart

First I must thank almighty God for all that He does in my life.
Secondly I thank my mother for allowing me to attend this school Memorable times were: the Blue Raider family, Baby Blues Hockey with S. Homes, theological discussions with Duncan and Jeff Cruz for the loan of clothes and money. I'm out

Francavilla, Chris

Words to live by. So many memories and so many people to thank. First I'll thank my parents for picking up the tab. There are many memories: Snowfall '97, Test Mundeec! The top five list and many others. Well, guys it's been a blast! I'll carry my memories from these yellow bricks with me always. Good luck to all the grads and thanks to all the teachers for making these past five years challenging yet beneficial!
Double blue , till I'm through.

GOLD, Stage and Concert Band, Sally's outstanding customer service at 7-11, I'd like to thank certain teachers for teaching me about sleep deprivation, I thank my friends for helping me get through St.
Mike's and my parents for their dedicated support.

Grant, Christopher Thanks to my family and to SMC and a long list including the ginger cookie monster, everyman the Godfather, Heff, Best and the rest of the lads.
Wave on, wave on..
.Hendrix

Grzybowski, Trevor Well, lads it's finally over-it's been a great five years with the boys. I'll remember TDCAA champs, Jr. Double Blues, all the wanton smash-ups in Mr.
McKernan's class, trying to meet Mr. Grassi half way and four years with Mr. Barry (I'll make you a senator some day I promise). If all else fails remember: "du calme, Marlow."

Giansante, Michael
It was nice having you on the scene for the past five years. Good luck to you and think St. Mike's

Gonsalves, Darryl
Now that we are at the end of our journey at St. Mike's, I can definitely say it was not a smooth road. The lessons I have learned and the friends I have made will last.

Grigg, Dave
Who would have thought 17,388,000 seconds would go by so fast. My best memories are Mr. Tannis (grade ten), Quebec and professional heckling.
This was my last ISU.

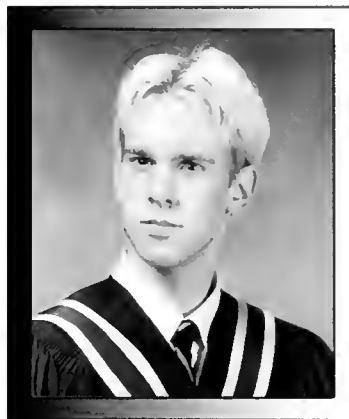

Guidi, David
I can't believe five years is already up. All those long drives home, last three periods spare (pulling missions), summer camping and the farm and all the parties and the clubs... thanks to all the boys who made these times what they were.
I'll see you at the top! And for those of you who were wondering, my real name is Duddy Kravitz

SMC

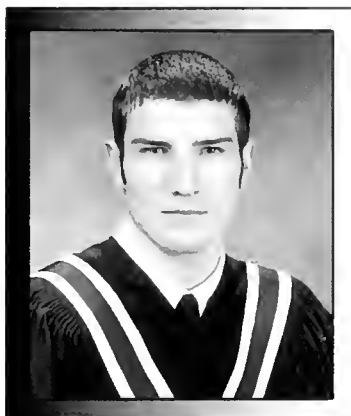

Hammill, Ryan
May the lessons you have learnt here at St. Michael's serve you well in the future and be a source of gratification.

Heffernan, Kevin

Five years of wlkng through these sacred yellow walls has taught me many things. I have learned to lose with my head held high and win with a passion that can't be found in other institutions. Mom and Dad I love you, Julie I'll never forget you.

*Not all that glitters is gold,
Not all who wander are lost,
The old that is strong does not wither
Deep roots are not touched by frost. - Tolkien*

Howarth, Joseph

The yellow bricks lit me, I burned brightly, aglow with the crew, aglow with laughter and energy : learning, teaching, parenting, preaching -always melting. Sadly but ironically every day
I was growing the wick grew shorter.

For five years it was the spirit, the pride, the blue that kept me alive, fed my flame.
But as all candles must flicker and die so too my time must end. Though the flame may stop burning, the light will last forever.

Hyun, Steve

Your presence at SMC was a great benefit to the graduating class and the many clubs you belonged to. We wish you great success in all you turn your hand to.

Ieraci, Anthony

Thank you to my parents
Father Mohan and Mr.
Trentadue for giving me the opportunity to attend St.
Mike's. They have given me a future of wisdom and discipline that I will use in my life..

Holmes, Sean

It's been a slice- things to remember-the epidemic of bad timing period 1-8, spare in 12 and 13, Best's pathetic plans, Denis' pathetic lies, Ig's failing, the shotgunrule, homeroom 90210,000 Gr.
12 PHE, and that's the bottom line because Sean Holmes said so.

Hyacienth, Paul

I would first like to thank God for giving me the strength to endure these past four years of education, to my Mom whom I consider the great protagonist of this "story of my life and also my heroine. To my sisters thank you for showing me the love family can share. To new crew and old crew, and to everyone for being part of THE EXPERIENCE..
Kehn'dar.

Remember the word to your servant in which thou hast made me hope This is my comfort in my affliction.. (Psalm 119: 49-50)

Illanes, Claudio

Five years at SMC weren't just good, they were great. Thanks to the Basilian Fathers and the staff for their efforts in strengthening the St. Michael's tradition. We worked hard to develop body, mind and spirit, now it's time put them in action. See you all at the re-union.

Jaskiewicz, Wojtek

We are all a very small, very minute blip in the development of the world.

This is all the more why we should work, hard as ever, to be as bright as possible. So that despite the brevity of our blip all will be forced to stop and take notice.

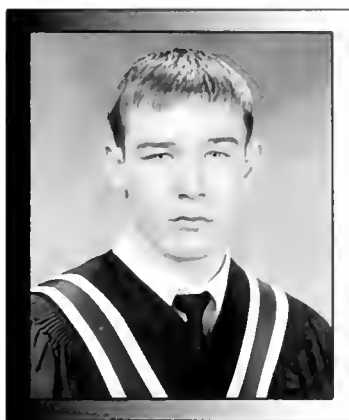

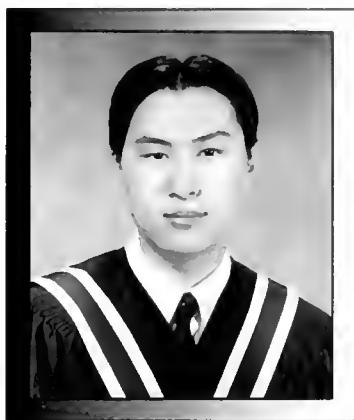

Jensen, Eric

It has been a difficult five years living under the tyrannical dictatorship of Rm. 214. Even though I am permanently scarred by the virus of ISU because of copious amounts of work there were still good times in the classrooms. Extracurricular were Dailyde's cottage, Ski-days, the Rio Grands, and riding the 504. Do not ask for what good purpose the birds do sing, for song is their pleasure since they were created for singing. Similarly we should not ask why the human mind troubles to fathom the secrets of the heavens. (Johannes Kepler)

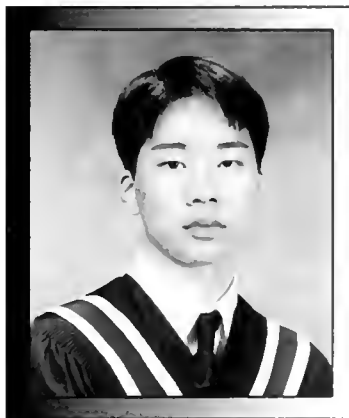

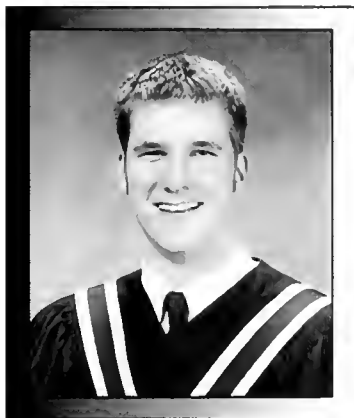

Jee, William

Take New Jersey, it's 2.65...no, no, no. Take New Jersey-Buffalo tie. Call me a gambler but I'll bet you take more risks than I. Hey, the world's a crazy place so let's play pool...I win, you lose.

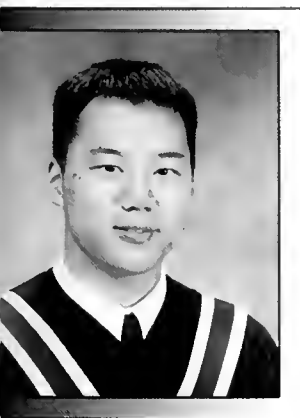

Kavaliauskas, Jonas

First thanks to all my great teachers through the years, thanks to the coaches, too. Respect to the three years of Kerry Blues football. TDCAA Champs and Metro Bowl. I'll never forget you guys. Long live the Slavs!

Kim, Andrew

We wish you every success in the future - don't forget the friends you made at St. Michael's.

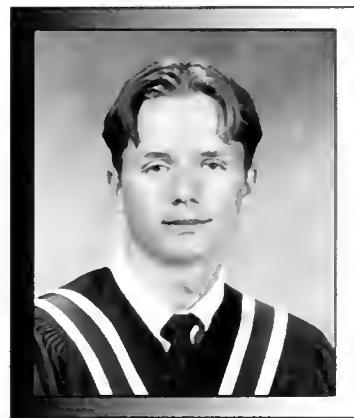

Kim, Tony

My years at St. Michael's have taught me, doctinated me, helped me, hurt me, burt mosy of all matured me. Leaving is both happy and sad, relief and worry, exciting and mournful. I'm glad I made it through and through. Some last words: Jeremy you owe me more than you owe the library. I like ketchup but not that much. Gatsby get off the juice. "Star Wars is the greatest and. Mr. Raccoon we never knew you well enough.

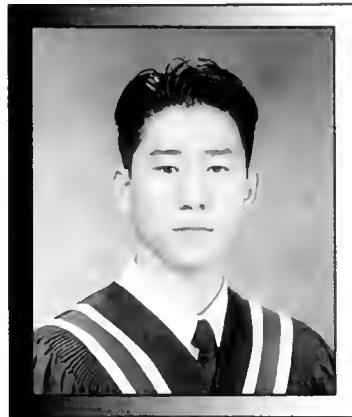

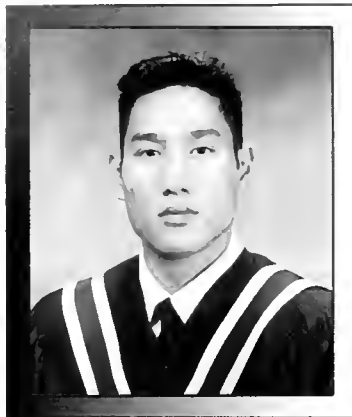

Kucera, Paul

Good luck in all you do. May you have great successes in your future career. Your many friends wish you all of the best

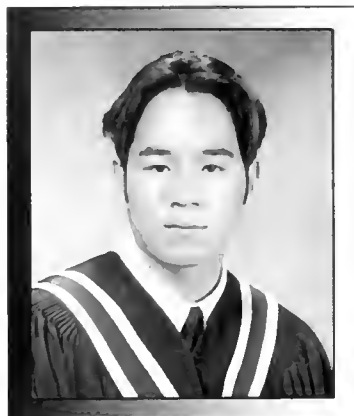

Lam, Brian

Fact : five years have passed - each worst than the last They're just bricks, does colour really matter ? I'm leaving this place , it brings a tear to my eye.. of joy?
Yes..no.

Lee, Jason

It's been a great ride but it's finally over The memories will be cherished forever: such as Prentice Cup,'95, Senior B
Champs '95 and others.

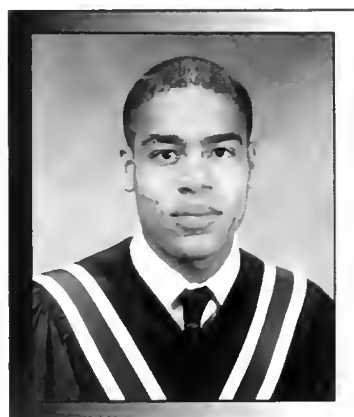

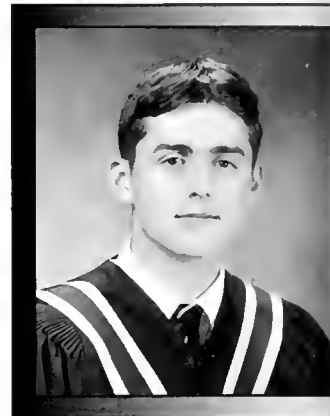

Lee Poy, Robert

The days of travel from Mississauga to SMC are over to be replaced by travel to the university. The road of learning too is arduous and long. Persevere and keep your end in sight.

Lester, Dan

Your
days of study and play are over you contributed much to keep the traditions of St.Mike's strong .Good luck in your future

Lewis ,Luis

As I leave I grow a little taller (5' to 6' 2" ?) a little wiser and very grateful for all that SMC has done for me. There are things I'll never forget: wall ball, rides with Mark, leading the world's largest , loudest trombone section with Dave at music rehearsal, intramural basketball with the Ghetto boys, the black tie affair, Europe '95, Bahamas '97. Thanks for five good years of music and thanks to Mom and Dad and sisters for unending love and support. Seeya, when I see ya.

Ling, Hubert

I'd like to give thanks to God and all the interesting teachers and peeps who have made St.Mike's tolerable. Most importantly, I thank my parents without you I wouldn't be here.
Peace

Linteau, Timothy

Masy you have a successful time as you complete your education and go on to a great career in life. Never forget the double blue.

Liuni, Andrew

Your presence in the school has been beneficial to you and the school. Remain true to your faith and thank God who has been so good to you.

Loh, Eldon

I will always remember drawing "pitchers" a "na rdism" with Prezmiik (another one). in Al-Geo , trying to keep up with Fr. Zinger on the piano, musicals and Fr. McKinnon, Florida, Bahamas'97 I hope to forget OAC Physics partners and sunrises.

Louis, Rhain

I was walking down the street when I saw a bird. I said to the bird, "how's it going?" The bird did not reply, I said "suit yourself" and walked off. I didn't cry when the bird was killed by a car but I did cry when the resulting hump made the car drop its omens. The moral when you go to university do your homework and don't spoil the omens. Before you insult someone walk a mile in their shoes, then when you insult them you will be a mile away and he will be barefoot.

King Lear
Times of madness and blindness that were always followed by awareness and sight. Thank you for friends I made, lessons I learned and experiences I had.

Maiolino, Michael

As long as the blue blood flows through my veins, I will always have fond memories of SMC Things that will remain forever: Europe '95, Bahamas '97, Concert band, Stage band, semis, the teachers and Basilians, the intramurals (Ghetto Boyz) stories at lunch and veal runs.

Mak, Geoffrey

expresses his gratitude to the students and staff of St. Mike's, to St. Michael, Our Mother Mary and to God the Father, The Son and The Holy Spirit..
This hill though high I covet to ascend,
The difficulty will not me offend
For I perceive the way to life lies here, Come pluck up heart, let's neither faint nor fear.
Better though difficult the right way to go,
Than wrong, though easy where the end is woe

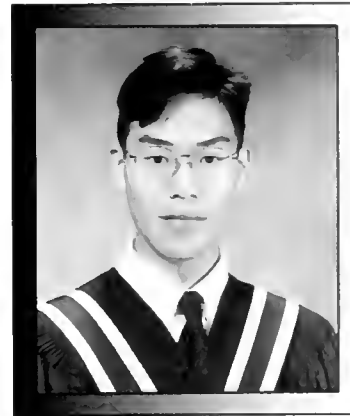

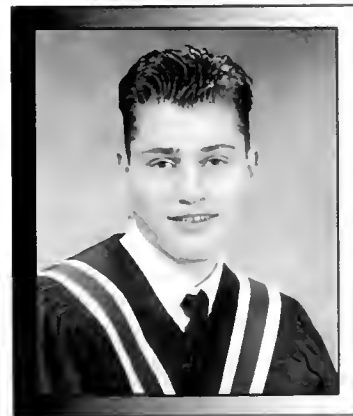

Marano, Michael

St. Michael's has provided me with memories to cherish forever, good friends and the times spent together. Gr. 12 period 3 spares and the weekly veal run football- 3 TDCAA championships And Skydome, Metro Bowl, Hockey and all the teachers that made five memorable years..

Marchetti, Steven

Remember the days of your youth at St. Mike's, the good times and the many friends that you made

Marchie, Alphonse

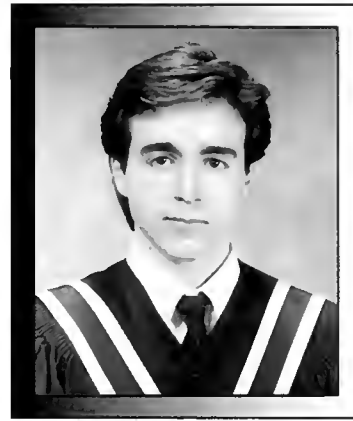

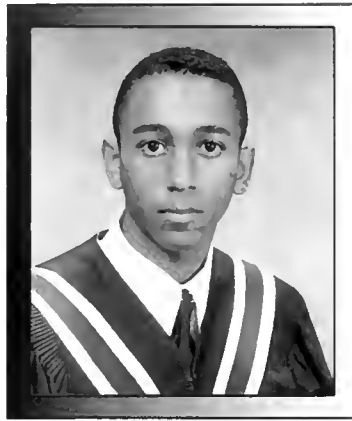

I am always surprised how life includes such a variety of experiences. Each moment has instilled something of importance to me. They have given me precious insights into the importance of understanding human relations. The clubs that I have joined taught me invaluable techniques in interpersonal skills. I have learned more in five years than most ever hope to learn elsewhere. I thank God and my family, they have given me inspiration, education and motivation.

Mauricette, Derek

We have come to the end of another journey in life. In retrospect I will never forget suicide track workouts.

OF-SAA Track'96, Florida 93, five years of X-country but most of all arriving at the school at 6:30 And turning on the caf lights. Thanks to my brother who has supported me and been my role-model.; to my parents who continue to put up with me.

Never forget to seize the day and keep it real.

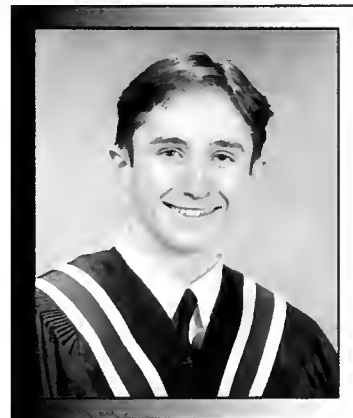

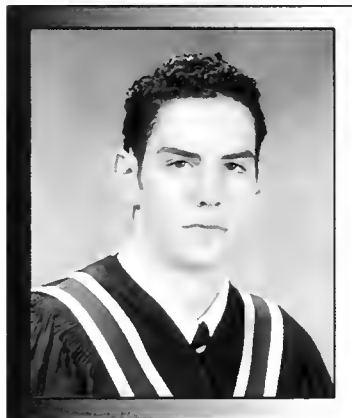

McClorey, Philip

I'll never forget the veal runs a lunch, the trip to Collingwood, the grad trip, intramural hockey, jam sessions before exams and always coming second in the hockey pools. I'll remember the hockey pools.

McRae, Peter

Veni, vidi, vici, to five great years and the guys who made it possible. To the Buzzers, superstars and all the staff. Thanks to my parents for putting up with me. Keep your eye on the kid he's going places.

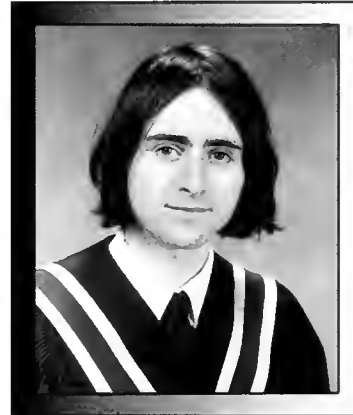

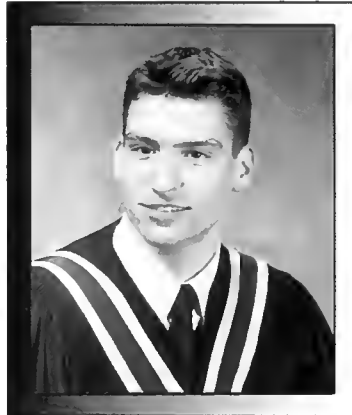

Minatel, Alexander

The five years that we spent Great classes and many friendships made St. Mike's such a great experience. Within these yellow bricks have come to an end but not without many memories. Shouts go out to the lunchtime crew, the Break-fast club and all the clubs.

Moore, Steve

Memories of the lessons I have learned from some truly great people. It is difficult to say farewell to a place that has become so much a part of me my mind, my body, my soul. As I stand on the edge of the great unknown, dreading leaving a place that has meant so much to me I have a certain confidence knowing St. Mike's is with me forever.

More, Andrew

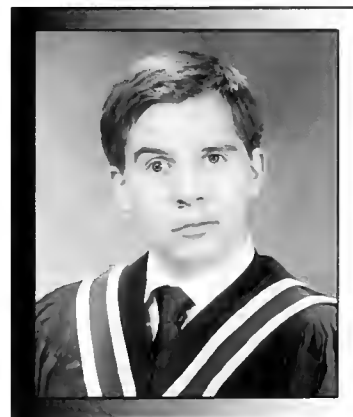

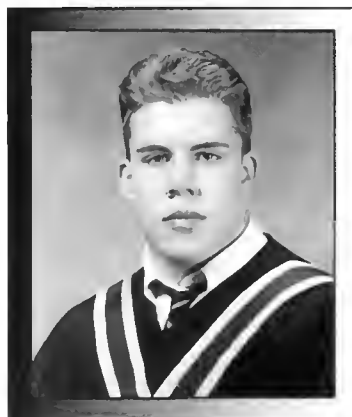

"Hello, said my shaky voice, remember when we were young, looking for ride to a secret location waiting for the van to come. Alice didn't think that proved it at all. Off again. On a train in the station, lolling up and down. I met a young girl, she gave me a rainbow, leaping along faster than we thought, but I think I saw life the way it was...ah like to see punters enjoy themselves, ken?.. it take a teen-age riot....our little hideaway and I'll go to bed at noon, jumpin' up in the air...ay feel sort of dynamic, ken?" Thank you friends, Mum and Dad.

Mullally, Joseph

*I have decided to leave you forever,
I have decided to start things from here.

and I want to get off Farewell Father Sheehan and the Metrobowl - the game I never played

Murdoch, Matthew

The class of 1997 welcomes Matthew to its graduating ranks with every wish and prayer that he will soon recover from the lamentable accident that has taken him from our midst.

Musselman, Reilly
 Memories are plentiful.
 Green smarties, learning new words in Calc class, Baby Tiger, OFSAA '92-
 '97, Nationals '94-'97, Worlds '96-'97, Universals year 2000, hard work can beat talent, but hard work alone can't beat talent that works hard.

Navascues, Ignacio

It seems just like yesterday that I began and wished it would never end. Of all my years at St Mike's Grade Eleven was the greatest. During English class I spent more time in the washroom than in class and in other classes I learned about a certain teacher's family and about ball hockey night in Canada. In shop I learned I could sand the same block of wood for nine months. I especially want to thank my parents for sending me to St Mike's.

Ng, Douglas

Acts 2:4,26 has always puzzled me. It says: "Saul, your learning has made you mad!", "And it's true; After all what else would you expect from a school of live-by watergun shootings? But that's what makes St. Mike's an unique. There was always someone to explain Snell's law, Mendel's law or even some teachers' jokes. The past five years have been great and I shall be forever grateful to those who pumped me full of goodness, discipline and knowledge. ... or at least that's what I'll tell my psychologist, ever too busy to explain the subjunctive, 23 the chain rule, why Caecilius is in the hortus.

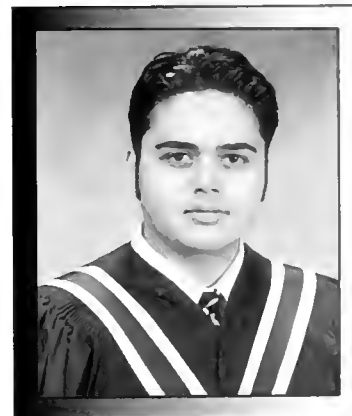

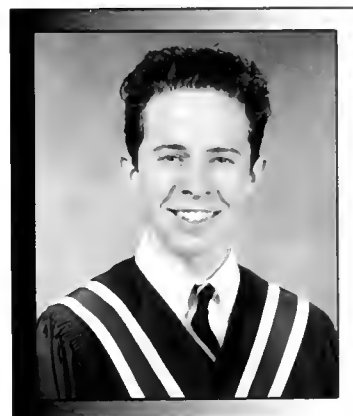

Norrmalm, Eric

The end has finally come! Five years of working on a seemingly endless slew of projects, ISU's, tests, seminars etc. is now quickly coming to a close. It is now time too move from telling endless stories and doing lunchtime jeep repairs, to a bigger world that St Mike's has prepared for me to enter. I would like to thank my family and my friends as well as my teachers for putting up with me and helping me through my years here.

Novalski, Michael

There're two types of people in this world - those that like Jamiroquai and those that don't. Life is nothing but by four strings and the truth - thanks to all the musicians that helped me find it. Endless gratitude to Mum and Dad. Thanks to the J.C. crew for Edenfest '96 swimmin' out to sea trying to find something else, while I' skippin' stones and I'm listenin' to the shells; I won't forget you, if someone else comes along. Sloan

Novis, Mark

Special memories include Europe '95, Bahamas '97, the black tie affair, driving the ASSAT, the Ghetto Boyz intramural basketball, the Drake, the back up from the trombones in the Senior Jazz. Thanks to my family for the sacrifices they made, to St. Mike's for teaching me goodness, discipline and knowledge which will prove to be priceless in the years to come.

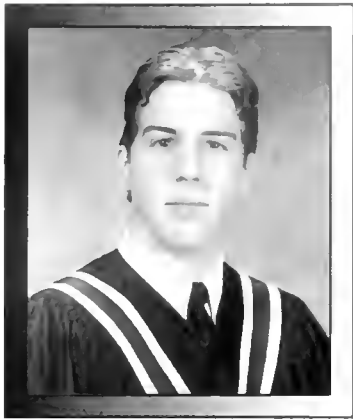

Nunes, Paul

The antithesis of truth would be to say that these past five years have been my favourite. To say that SMC prepared me for the real world would be an understatement. What I learned here will never leave me. To the Synet prototype that escaped, I'll be back. To Heavy D.: like father like son. TOTMRFTM. Richard's weating. Props to the one prof who cared.

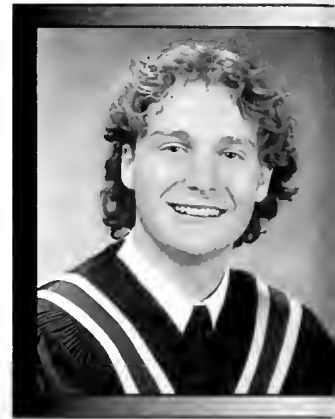

O'Leary, Sean

I came at five foot-four and 110 lbs., it's been a climb through pre-Mohan years to six foot three and 175 lbs. From Intramural hockey to Senior "B" it's been a great time. As Mark Twain said: Even if you're on the right track, you'll get run over if you just sit there.

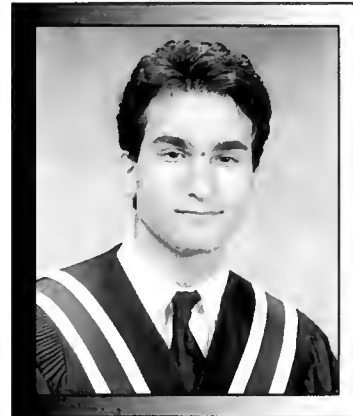

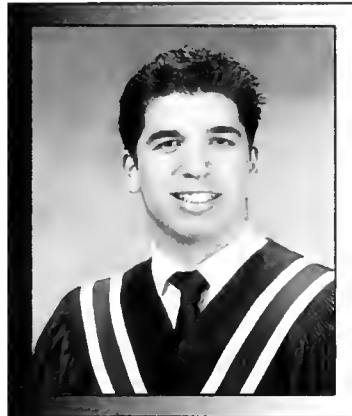

Patrick O'Reilly
Your presence in the school has been a great asset. Continue to study and work hard and God will reward you.
Our best wishes on your graduation.

Ostoya, Jimmy
Thanks St.Mike's for all you've done and especially the memories, like:
Mr.Ribarich in the weight room, Timmy "tell me a story" Linteau, and grade twelve gym with Zavodny.
Thanks to Mr. McKernan for getting me into Fashion College. Just remember to stop and smell the flowers.

Pagano, Mark
Our loss is another's gain.
We're sorry to see you leave but you musy go on to bigger and better things

Palermo, Matthew

Never hurry

Never worry

And don't forget to smell the roses along the way.

Park, John
I'll remember the breakfast club, ISU fever.
Mr. McKernan's English, "the vista not the view", Mr. McCann, "you have to have wonder" etc.
I tried to thank you along the way, if I didn't, I thank you now. It's closing time.

Paul, Harold

My five years at St.Mike's have been memorable ones -great classes, weight room with the tough guys . I want to thank my parents and all my friends . Remember if you can't beat them you might as well join them

Pavacic, Mark

Just remember when things get tough
you are a St.Mike's man, and you'll pull through

Pescador, Patrick

Pescador, Patrick
It's been fun but not really-my five yellow- bricked years at SMC
- days of the coffee shops and subway delays and Shanner and Holcker. Just remember an essay should be like a woman's skirt.

Piroli, Paul

Me and Minnie are O"K what about you guys?
Thanks to my parents, my brothers, and all the teachers for helping me through a long five years, five years of memories include: football, (3 TDCAA's and the Dome), soccer, Calcietto, Bio seams with Park, Brisk champ with D.J. and going one on one (15:8) with Marchetti.

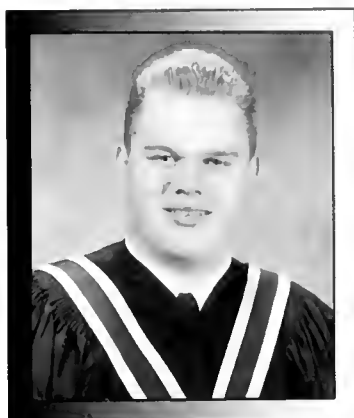

Pontello, David

*Life without examination is not worth living. (Socrates).
It's better to regret something you did than something you didn't do. (B.H.S.)
I lost my wookiee (Ralph Wiggum)*
Thanks to the teachers for starting me on the long road to truth and to the Portuguese for accepting me into their community
.This is a great school, it's up to you guys to keep it that way .

Przybylo, Paul

We came here boys and we leave as men. I want to thank my family, my teachers and friends for giving me the opportunity and support during the good and bad.
My memories include 4 TCDAAs championships, 2 T.O. Bowls Metro Bowl '96, Mr. Trentadue's... "Przybylooooo... you were holding!~ Take a lap!"... up at 5:45, period three spare... we got time for one more game... I'll be double blue until I'm through.

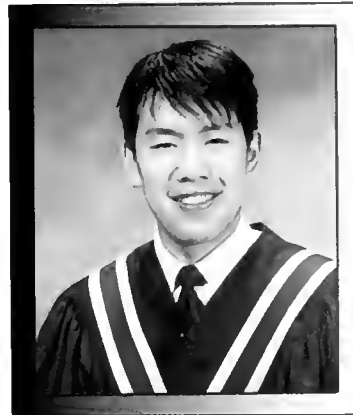

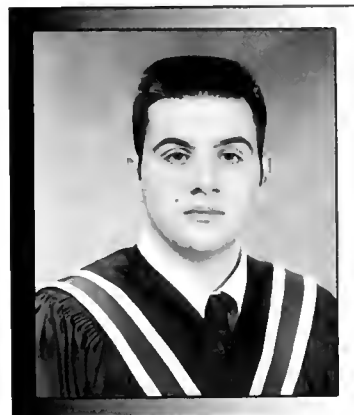

Puzzo, Michael

Our five year journey has come too an end. It's been great thanks to all the teachers, shouts out to the days of Acapulco, thanks for the laughs Cabana boy, goodluck to Jordan in the NHL - keep your head up boys, I'm out...

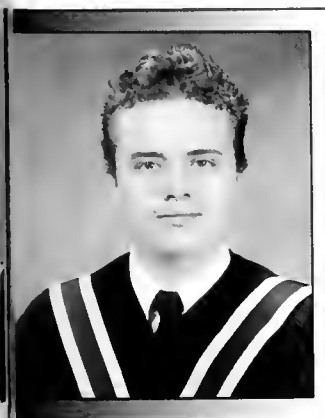

Quaglietta, Michael

Five years have come and gone which brings to a close another chapter in my life. No matter where I go or what I do I will always remember St. Mikes. There are many memories Mr. Geniole's awesome shop classes and AV adventures. Special thanks go out to my parents who made all this possible and to my friends who made this amazing.

Quan, Randy

What I won't miss are the endless subway rides and the sleepless nights but rather all the great friends I've made. I wish life would be like 90210 where we all go to the same university. I thank everybody who has had to undergo my antics and put up with me. Unfortunately the class of '97 has shaped me into the person I am today and without them life just wouldn't be the same. Take care everybody and live each day as a day that was skipped at S.M.C.

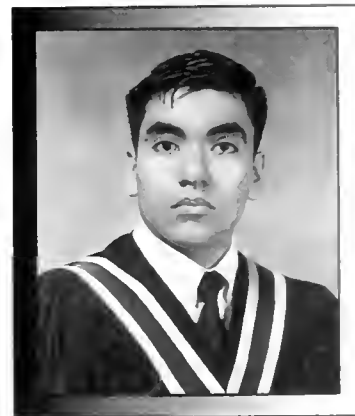

Raczynski, Przemyslaw

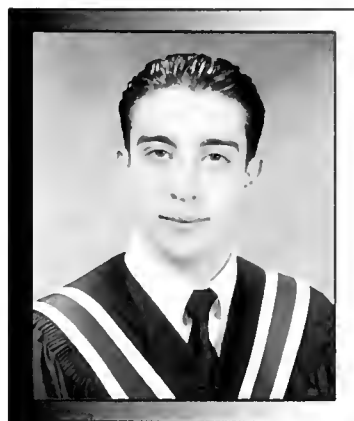

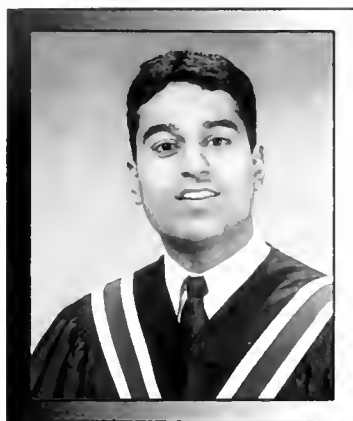

These years have marked the most formative years of my life - the transition from boyhood to manhood. There are many memories especially of the music department. With the support of my family and friends the Basilian education has helped make me. The journey of self discovery however has only begun.-

Ramirez, Carlos

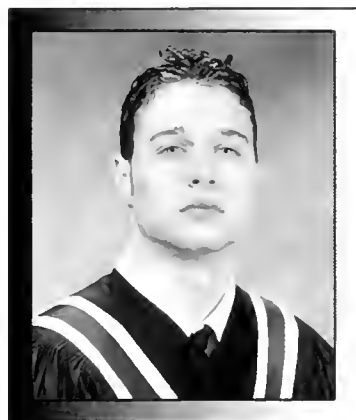

Five unforgettable years have gone in a flash but the memories I have will last a lifetime. Never forget the classes and homerooms and "The Bomb" during Wasaga '96, the late nights at the club, lunch time talks with the gang.

Ramos, Daryll Goodness, discipline and knowledge are values you can always treasure.

Rasetta, Anthony
 St. Mike's has come to mean many things to me: soccer, I.H.L., fishing,
 .calcetto, briscola, I.S.U. sleepless nights. More importantly it has become a home for the best and the worst things of my life. I would like to thank every one who was there for me
 - my father for providing the opportunity and especially my mother who is five feet tall is still the biggest person I know.
 May the best thing that happened to you this year be the worst that happens to you next year. Thanks S.M.C.

Reda, Matthew
 Your stay at S.M.C. has been important to you and rewarding to others here. Keep on your good ways not forgetting the many friends you have made,
 who value your friendship.

Reiart, Scott Carry in your heart loyalty to St. Mike's and its goals and you will find that things will always go well with you.
 God bless you

Richard, Shawn
 Thank you to all the staff and students of St. Mike's. I have learned a lot about life and there are two tenets I leave behind for you:
 First: Live without regrets and if you really want something even though it may seem impossible, do it.
 Second: Believe in yourself, and keep on trying because your perseverance will be rewarded at least in success of character.

Rumszewicz,
 Michael
 May good fortune always follow your footsteps. Remain true to God and the Church and to helping other human beings for the love of God.

 R.P. Murphy
 One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest

Ruthven, Graeme

The memories are lunch at DaMaria's with the guys, crew for Superstar and Guys and Dolls, stage manager for Fantasticks and Little Mary Sunshine, cast parties, Lake Placid '97, and Washington '96. Slapshot in French class with Ms. Mc Dougall, discussing punctuality with Mr. Pagano, spares in the library and three years in the IHL. I'll never forget.

Samuel, Dwayne

It's hard to soar like an eagle when you're surrounded by turkeys. Julian Hardy Thanks St. Mike's for instilling in me the strong values that I will carry for life. You do teach goodness, discipline and knowledge. Thanks to all who supported me through the years. The Lord above, my parents (flux ya), D-R crew and all my other friends. Follow your heart and you should come out on top.

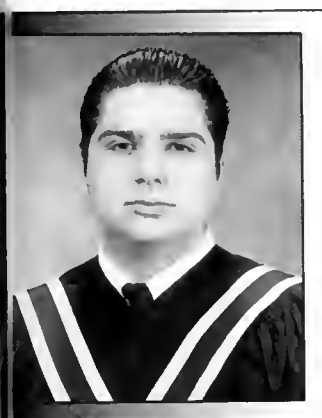

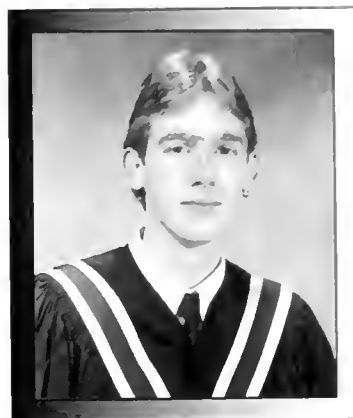

Santone, David

Five years have gone by with so many memories - outstanding teachers, OHSAA '97, hockey, the lunchtime crew, Lecee's nuclear bomb that killed all life forms in Ciccolini's car, and all my buddies who made my time a blast. Keep in touch and party hard. See ya LSR.

Sartor, Bryant

First off I'd like to thank all the teachers for guiding me through these crucial years of my life and putting up with my antics for all these years. Some great memories have come out of this place: EDEN Music Fest, Mark Novis black tie affair the Breakfast Club and all those at the Second Cup (cept Fess). It's been a slice gentlemen, take it easy.

Sasso, Enzo

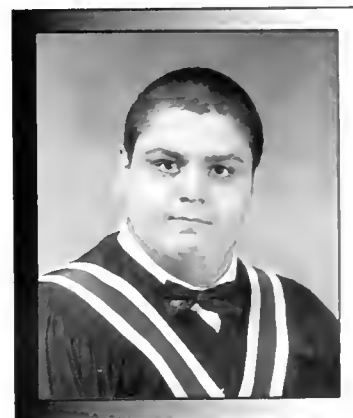

Good things come and go but memories last forever. Thanks to students and staff at St. Mike's. The top three things I'll never forget: the clubbing, the May 2-4 days at Collingwood and the March break. I thank the staff for preparing me to face the future and my parents for picking up the tab.

Scali, Frank

"Come my friends, 'tis not too late to seek a brave, new world".

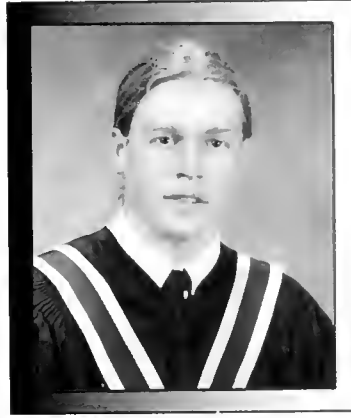

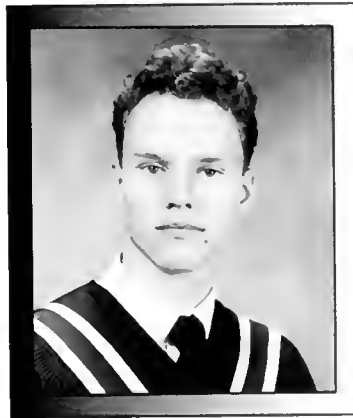

Alfred Lord Tennyson

To St. Michael's:
If the only prayer you say in your whole life is "Thank you", that would suffice.
Meister Eckhart

Schippke, Robert

These past five years have been an exceptional experience and have been taught many subjects but the most important learning has been how to become a man. We came as children we leave as men. We came to St. Mike's, we leave as St. Mike's. Thanks to all the Basilian Father, teachers and friends who have made the last five years unforgettable.

Schmidt, Michael

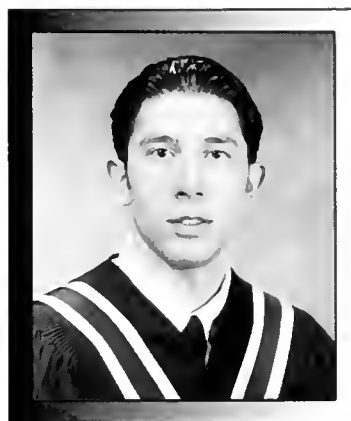

My senior years at St. Mike's have been great. I will remember them partly for the long hours of work expended, but more for the laughs. Thanks to my parents for their love, support, patience and time as well as St. Mike's for discipline and knowledge. C.B.C. for relaxing summers. "A's" to Boldin for divine intervention.

Scocco, Giorgio

Well, boys one last popper because all good things come to an end and my time has come to leave these yellow bricks..I'll never forget Italian plays, Senior A hockey, Italy in '95 with YC band. Thanks to the boys and teachers for making my stay a happy one.

Most importantly I'd like to thank my parents for making everything mentioned above possible by picking up the tab. It was worth it.

Settecase, Fabio

For my SMCS years I will remember classes in Latin, English, Italian, Math, all with fabulous teachers, the 1995 and 1996 Italian plays, lunch time calcetto,
"ostracism" and all those ISU's. Thanks to all my parents teachers and the boys - good luck in the future.

Sexton, Stephen.

Years from now we hope that you will remember with fondness the old double blue school and its traditions.

Sills, Patrick

And eternity in an hour.

William Blake

To the times and the people I will never forget: Montreal, jr. and sr.
hockey, The Buzzers, the feminist, the Duck and all the rest of the boyz.

Simon, Kevin

Your presence at the school was appreciated by staff and students May God bless you and give you success in all that you do.

Simpson, David

It's been fun these past five years
. I know that I am better off than I was and I know that St. Mike's had a large part to do with that.. Looking back I'd like to thank my family, my teacher and my friends who helped me to get where I am.. taught me the things I know and gave me many great memories.. no matter what the unknown future brings, I know I am ready - double blue until I'm through.

Sivilia, Mark

These years have given me the faith and focus to pursue all my future endeavours. To all my boyz whether in school or out thanks for making it bearable. To my parents and brothers who taught me the values in life and kept

Slawson, Marc

Over my years at SMC I've learned a lot of things ..don't eat yellow snow. Thanks to my family, my teachers. I'll never forget "da Saab", Saturday nights at Russells, and the boys: Stick man Guidi, Harry Ahh Paul, Bolla, and "shine on Crazy" Dymond. Thanks for the memories.

Sohn, Michael Adhere to the spirit you learned at St.
Michael's and let it guide you to success in the future.

Sotirakopoulos, Dimitris
It's hard to soar like an eagle, when you're surrounded by turkeys.

Spagnolo, Anthony
St. Mike's has given you an opportunity to display your talent, skills and intelligence and to grow in maturity.
Continue to develop yourself both intellectually and spiritually.

Stepinsky, Robert Sometimes things don't seem important until you look back at them. The teachers and friends that will become memories soon will never know how much they helped me along the way. I'm leaving St. Mike's knowing that in five years I fed my brain more than I fed my belly. Thanks to every one. Someday I'll meet the ghost that pushed me through these years.

Story, Michael
Five years and not a single regret. Thanks to my parents, I couldn't have done it without you. The best of times: Metrobowl '96, Kerry Blues, Buzzer games, Woody Boyd running for office St. Catharines, '96, Cahill's house and countless others. See you at the reunion. Hopefully the Cleveland Browns will have won a Super Bowl.

Taborowski, Robert
Five years have passed with many sleepless nights and stressful days. But now the time has come for all of us to move on in life. I would like to thank my parents, my friends, teachers and coaches for giving me the five best years of my life. I'll never forget my years in basketball and football, chem class, physics class. Best of luck and looking forward to seeing you

Tanzola, Patrick
A smile and a single tear for what this place means SMC. I'll remember yellow-bricked youth, desk-pounding hysteria and the ubiquitous cry of Oh!
later! snack bar fun-factory.

Viola, Davide

It was the best of times , it was the worst of times but finally the time has come to leave. Shouts go out to all the boys and thanks for all the great memories and laughs. Shouts to the teachers and an unforgettable experience that did teach me goodness, discipline and knowledge. Remember: " what the mind can believe and conceive, it can achieve"

Viola Mark

Five years, an experience that will last an eternity. Shouts and respect to all the crew -keep your heads high and your dreams higher. Thanks to all the teachers who have given us the tools to succeed. I have memories of Acapulco '97 and the bomb - to all those who understand, remember: Sanity is the playground for the unimaginative. Anon.

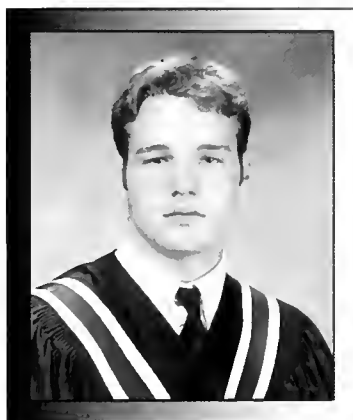

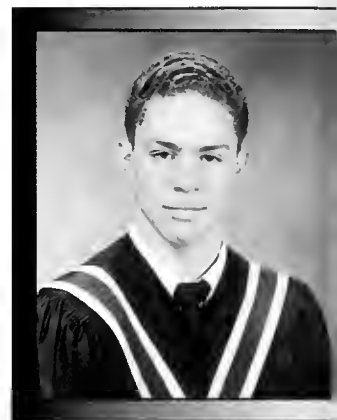

Vitale, Rudy

I'd like to thank Mom and Dad, they knew the time.

It took five years to climb out of the hole and see the light. On my journey I passed through: Gr. nine gym, chalk assaults, 1995 TDCAA soccer champs, 2 of 3 Calciotto champs. A special thanks to my blazer for five good years.

Wahba, Jonathan

When the starting gun on my St. Mike's career fired five years ago, never would I have imagined that the finish line would approach so quickly. Although I had many hurdles to clear, the job was made easier by many people. A special thanks to my parents who always supported me, I will never forget Boston '96, OFSSAA '96, Peelers, and of course all the boys.

Ward, Michael

I had a pretty good time these five years. Here are some things I'll remember:

1. Dominican '97
2. Bibione '95
3. #1 and #2 (?)
4. Wednesday mornings
5. Losing the anchor
6. In the weight room
7. Ded zero
8. Ditching Nugent
9. Gender
10. Sloth

It was a blast but we all have to move on. Later.

What's up to the Drok crew, hold the "O". Anyway St. Mike's thanks for the headaches, the ulcers and the near strokes. Thanks SMC for shaping my character and showing me the right path. Whether I choose it or not, at least I will recognize it.

Wong, Pius

Your presence in the school has had a positive effect among us. May God be with you as you travel on to great things in your life.

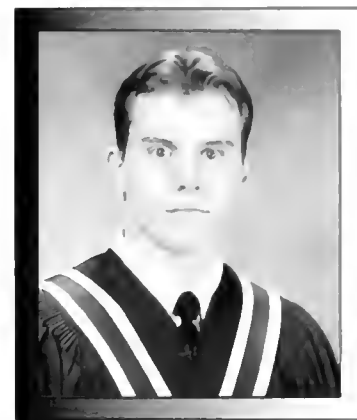

Wu, Scott

Looking back I realize how much fun I've had for the past five years. Memories of cramming before tests, winning the volleyball TDCAA finals and the nights out with all my friends will forever remain with me. I would like to thank my parents and friends who helped me- good luck

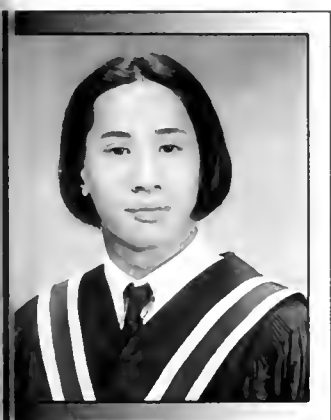

Yeung, Derrick

First and foremost I have to give big ups to all the peoples that had my back, the boyz especially Mark, and to all the boyz that stabbed my back, better check yo'self (Red Dog "79), before I head out remember to keep it REAL Besides for every bad boy there is a bad girl.

Young, Stephen

Greatest thanks to my family for all they have done. To the Kerry Blues - Olu is still champ for now! Senior B Basketball rules! Who can forget Cahill's parties? Howarth you throw a wild unforgettable party. Thanks for the memories, the laughs, keep it real, peace. Pogue Mahone

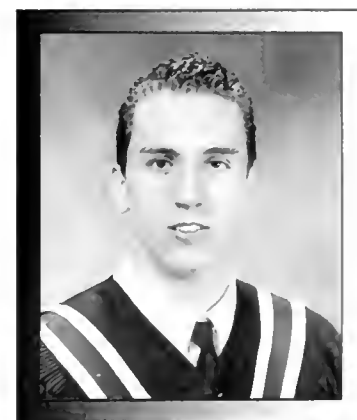

Yuzon, Richard

It's been a trip..peace out to Phil, Ziaud, my P.B. adversaries, the Beach Bums the Agincourt girls, the West Enders and my buds at SMC. Remember to live in fear is not to live at all.
So I'll see you on the darkside boys.

Zavodny, Peter

My bricks are yellow, the boys are blue the heckles are mint and so are all of you. Love goes out to all the boys and the life-last memories. Special thanks go to Reds, Sills, Reiert and McRae. It's time to start living and choosing our dreams.
Have a good one, eh?

The Valedictory Address

Fourscore and 170 weeks ago, way back in September, 1992, a rag-tag, wide-eyed, peach-fuzzed band of young boys, total strangers to each other, stumbled into a yellow-bricked, yellow-desked, and yes, even yellow-floored building. They assembled to form that year's crop of niners. They occupied the low end of end of the totem-pole, unprepared for and unaware of the challenges and experiences that lay ahead. Somehow, they survived that first day, the locker stuffings, the bearded 7-foot OACers, the elevator passes and they gained strenght in time. They grew up together, nurtured by the supportive, competitive Double Blue spirit and tradition which permeate and invigorate every cubic inch of the verable old instituion known as SMC. At this graduation we all come together as family to celebrate our change from boys to men.

In spite of the fact that only yesterday we were just saying hello, donning grey flannel pants for the first of many times, today is our final reckoning, the time to say goodbye to SMC. The effect of SMC on our lives has been undeniable: for example the words "Oh Later" are now a working part of our vocabulary, and our skill of unison clapping is quantity of time we have put into our SMC ex-2000 hours of TTC, most telling of all, accord-hands of 4-man brisc have taken place in the is obvious the vast commitment to study, to put forth just to make it to this day. It is for here, exhausted but beaming, emotional and Sleepy, but definitely not Grumpy or Dopey, cause to congratulate us and each other, as we the rich and rewarding St. Mike's tradition.

It is so ironic that an institution that has cent years would still be so well-grounded in years has seen a new principal, new vice-cot in "Bubba-Lou" the Kerry-blue, as well as ing school building, and the arival of the Ma-into the OHL. These and many other changes the school's educational ideals, but are neces-to renew and rekindle the fire of the St. century.

Most important of these educational ics, a tradition which makes St. Michael's such founded the school as a place where the light of faith and religion. The priests, teachers and write a perfect finite exam, or drill us on the intricacies of the dump-and-chase: we have learned from them how to live the ways of Christ, to "do what we can do" for each other and for our community. Hopefully, as graduates, we will go on to succeed not only in the professional or finacial arenas, but also grow to become giving people, loving fathers, caring husbands. By giving of ourselves, by sharing and honing the talents and abilities within us, we can say that we have walked the gauntlet of Goodness, Discipline, and Knowledge, the chosen path of the St. Michael's man.

The Tradition here is not a mysterious or magical thing: there is no recipe that says "for ! St. Michael's Man, take one adolescent boy, season liberally with homework, bake for five years in a yellow-brick oven, serve when ready". Rather, the school's tradition lies within the hearts and minds of the people who roam its halls each and every day-the students, teachers, the priests-all co-operating under the guiding principle that SMC accepts nothing but greatness, in athletics, in academics, or anywhere else. It was this reputation of excellence in every field that was the innspiration for most of us to enrol here: to follow in the footsteps of our fathers and brothers, and all those leaders who had travelled the SMC road before us, and emerged as the most successful NHL hockey players, engineers, professors, air-force pilots, and politicians of their day, propagating the SMC tradition.

It's a cliche, but every one of here is a winner, and in a very real sense. Whether in football, in volleyball, in hockey, in soccer, in cross-country, and track and field, and most recently in baseball, the class of '97 competed at an incredible level. We sent teams all over the city and province, and at nearly every stop we were victorious, proving time and again that the winged-M will always fly high above the playing field. Everywhere that St. Michael's went, the fans were sure to go. Catalyzed by the "Superfans", the seats were filled on the field, in the Raiderdome, and in the arena, and every voice grew hoarse, cheering on another athletic triumph. We were good, we were loud, and we were proud.

Far from the athletic arena, St. Michael's was still a champion. Our debaters, our award-winning musicians, our drama department, our math and computer clubs, and our celebrated Reach For The Top team all excelled, as did our many other clubs and organizations, like the Blue Herald, and the choir. Even the arena snack bar was manned by talented, dedicated student. Our work in humanitarian endeavors was not to seek praise, but it too deserves mention: in Out of the Cold, Good Shepherd Refuge, Students-for-Life, and the chaplaincy club, SMC men gave of themselves to serve just causes and the needy. And that is the key to the Double Blue finely honed. Think of the sheer perience: over 5000 hours of classes, ing to Stats-Can, an estimated 130000 caf. Just look at the numbers, then, it work, and also to play, that we have this dedication to SMC that we appear Happy, perhaps even Bashful and Parents and faculty alike have great move on, successful graduates of this, spirit; our pride lay not just in what we got out of St. Mike's in the realm of athletics or competition, but how we ourselves contributed to our success through our willingness to serve each other and the community.

We came to St. Mike's for another reason: to study and learn. How do we remember our academic experience? "Five years of ruel torture and tribulation!" we most likely snarled, only a few weeks ago, as we crammed for finals. Exams, essays, ISU's, there was a seemingly endless series of hoops through which to jump in order to earn our way to graduation day. In French, we learned about rock star Marcel Meteoire, in Latin those immortal suffixes, bam, bas, bat, bamus, batis, bant, were forever etched in our heads, in calc the ultimate problem solving strategy: "when in doubt, set the derivative to zero, solve for X, and pray for divine intervention". The large dosage of work was a bad-tasting medicine, to be sure, but it was therapeutic. It has paid off, and not only in the form of an OSSD diploma. Trudging through the homework and assignments gave us the necessary discipline and diligence needed for future study as we embark to pursue our university careers. Most importantly, at SMC many of us discovered (to our shock) that there was actually a joy to learning. We began to think critically, write coherently, and express ourselves intelligently. Fascinated by the tremendous power of the intellect, we became true scholars here, eager to know why and to learn how.

Truly, we have reason today to be proud of the journey we have completed, and the accomplishments that our hard work has wrought. We would be remiss, however, if we failed to honor those whose efforts have made our success possible. We have our teachers especially to thank. These men and women have truly given themselves to SMC, expending their energy and imparting their wisdom for the betterment of their students. Not just dispensers of facts and figures, they are also real people, inspiring, eccentric, frightening and hilarious. Years from now, who of us will have forgotten the method in Mr. McKernan's madness, wagon wheels with Mrs. Morra, donuts with Mr. Coghlan, Mr. Thompson teaching the grade 12 physics course of classes of bewildered niners, or Mr. Tessaro's laid-back demeanor. The teachers have given us thousands of stories to tell, laugh about, and cherish, during our stay at SMC.

We must recognise the Basilian fathers, who have selflessly sacrificed their money and their lives to build and maintain this hallowed centre of learning. The lessons in faith and spirituality that we have received from the priests have provided the foundation and understanding necessary for us to live out our lives in the light of Christian teaching. Naturally, we thank our parents and families. Thanks to our older brothers who have come before us, for setting the examples, both those to follow and those to avoid; best wishes to the younger brothers, who continue down the yellow-brick road in the St. Mike's tradition. Thanks to our mothers and fathers, for dragging us out of bed at 6:30 every morning and for picking us up at night; for footing the bill, and for loving us no matter how badly we tanked that physics exam.

Finally, we must pause and thank each other, the members of the graduating class. The faculty and parents may have made today possible, but we made it necessary. Just as this class itself is a defining part of who we are, we are each an indispensable member of this class. This "group of ninety-seven" is a cast of talented characters, each of whom brings something special to the ensemble. Consider: Sam Dorri's cross-country medals, Frank Seali's bow-tie, the eloquent brilliance of Claudio Aragon, Duncan Forbes' volleyball spike and knowledge of cartoons, Jimmy Ostoya's good-mornings handshakes, Ig Navascues' ability to hijack a classroom discussion, the antics of Rob Stepinski and Mike Sohn, not to mention Pius Wong's brain-teasers, and of course Tony Kim's 19th birthday. The people and the personalities are what have put the exclamation point on our time here at St. Mike's. In the study hall, in the weight room, in the cafeteria, the bonds of friendship were created, only to be strengthened outside the school, at the track meets, on the band trips, and on the corner of Bathurst and St. Clair over a meatball sub and a slice of pizza. We have shared innumerable experiences and less memories. Before we must acknowledge the debt we owe for the ways in which we have enriched each other's lives.

All of our relationships in the universal "St. of our experiences: table-ria following a dropped ing cry of the Bubba Lou; sophical talks, followed by locker-room brawls; the power of the Ace of Brisc, the things, the quirks and that make SMC incredibly incredible. Now our time in finished, and we are poised at the brink of a new and a different reality: life beyond blue blazers, blue ties, and blue slips. We leave separately, as we came. We also leave prepared and mature, of honed minds and firm spirit. We have taken a hearty laughter, with a fond tear, and with a glow of pride, may we always treasure this part of our lives, and do some good with the many lessons that SMC has taught us. And that's what it's all about, Alfie! Congratulations and thank you, God bless you all, and see you at the Turkey Roll.

ATHLETICS

Students have always considered it to be an honour to be part of a St. Mike's team. Sports are used for fun and competition, and a strong involvement with team members and teachers is a by-product of being on a team.

Over the years St. Mike's teams have been a goal ahead, a run ahead, or a basket ahead. One of the benefits of teams for the teachers, is the contact with the students is more personal and gives the teacher a more intimate knowledge of the student. On the other hand, students look up to their coaches with respect as they work towards a mutual goal.

The Winged 'M' Tradition Continues...

Sometimes a team just never gets the opportunity to rebuild. While many football teams across the city cycle through their good years and their bad, the Kerry Blues continue to consistently turn out strong squads or hard hitting defense and creative offense, punting, tackling, and blitzing their way to another divisional championship. With the TDCAA trophy and a Toronto championship tucked in their belt, the Double Blue headed for the "Big One". Returning to Skydome for the third time in five years, the Kerry Blues showed up for the provincial championship—but the usually razor sharp knife was a little dull. Playing with a biorhythm that was a little off, and the pressure of playing for the home town crowd, seemed to drain the energy of the team. Alas, they lost the game after coming so far, but on the bright side, we always know that the seasons to come will have something of their own to offer.

The boys had a great season this year, placing second in the private school league while making it to the semi-finals in the TDCAA tournament before losing to the St. Mike's Double Blues. Led by coaches McCann and Malborough, the team had a good mix of rookie skill and veteran leadership. The team overflowed with pride as they held their own in the league as the underdogs to the Junior Double Blues showing that even the "Babies" can hang tough.

JUNIOR BLUE RAIDERS

Under the leadership of Mr. John and Mr. Fischer, the St. Michael's Junior Blue Raiders finished second at the Neil McNeil Invitational, and are one of the most intrepid and deft teams in the T.D.C.A.A.

Through offensive sparks from Mike Cueva and Brent Javier, most improved player Antonio Del Riccio rookie sensation Malcom MacKinnon, leadership from Don Collantes, and motivation and team spirit from the bench, this has led to the formation of a very vivacious and dynamic team.

Through hard-work, sportsmanship, and dedication, this team is truly a proficient opponent.

One of the most successful seasons of Senior Soccer in recent times was this year. Under the capable tutelage of veteran soccer coach Mr. Nick DiPinto the Double Blue colours headed for OFSAA. While not totally successful (they made it to the quarter-finals) the team displayed great talent. Strong goaltending was provided by Beau Yonker and his back-up, Vince de Gregorio. Co-captains Mike Puzzo and Rudy Vitale mounted a strong defensive team with great strength. Congratulations to all. Other senior contributing players were Dev. The 1997 Intramural Hockey Season was the most successful St. Mike's has seen in recent history. A total of 131 boys competed on 11 different teams, completing their seasons. As in the past, student volunteers were responsible for the success of the operation. Mark and Matt McRae, Chris Ponzi, and Andrea Spinozzi took care of the officiating. Sean and Kevin Shaughnessy took on double duty by playing Senior and running the Junior Division. Steve "Big Country" Anic and John Adamovsky kept stats.

The Junior pack leaders - the Ankle Burners - were led by Dimitris Burke, who netted 13 goals. Other top scorers were John Adamovsky with 25 points and Chris Slawson with 23. Peter Necpal was the only bright picture for the dismal Bullets, giving goalies a sunburn with eighteen markers. Other stars included Krystan Stopyra and Mike Connolly. The Sharks were crowned Junior Champs after a hard fought final with the Bruins.

SENIOR CHAMP

THE BUZZERS

In the Senior regular season, the Peelers finished first as Frank Ieraci led the way with 25 points. Other top scorers were Kevin DeSouza and John Whaba, as Dan Farlow led the league in dives. In the playoffs, the Buzzers turned back the Peelers for the Championship. Eric Jensen was their star with a combined 26 goals in the playoff and regular season. For other teams, names like Robert Lee-Poy and John Oldman filled the score sheets.

They are Sean and Kevin Shaughnessey, Steve Ancic, Mark and Matt McRae, Chris Ponziani, Andrea Spinozzi, Frank Hurley and Dave Bear. Of course, the league would never have gotten off the ground without the organization and supervision of Father James Enright.

"Back to the future" extravaganza celebrates fifty years of St. Mike's athletes

Athletes, from the past once more visit their humble beginnings; pay tribute to their alma mater.

Father Mohan, school principal, expresses his enthusiasm as Ryan Williams becomes "The Athlete of 1996-97".

The ultimate of athletic banquets was the aim of Mike Boland and Paul Forbes as they put together the most successful gathering of athletes in the past decade. Over three hundred St. Michael's athletes parents and friends came together to celebrate the glories of present and past athletic accomplishments. "Back to the Future" was the theme.

Below Before/after. The "before" shows in the upper right corner the giant video screen for the events of the year. Prepared by Mr. Thompson and helpers

Broadcaster Bob McCown of the sports station "The Fan", was the "emcee" of the evening which was highlighted by the keynote speaker Terry O'Malley, former NHL great and wearer of the Double Blue in his high school days. Numerous were the accolades laid upon coaches of the past and the highest praise went to the late Father David Bauer one of the luminaries of The Basilian Order, nationally known hero and respected teacher and priest.

An Evening To Be Remembered

Among the many guests were (from left) Father Robert Barringer, former St. Michael's grad and Superior-general of the Basilian Fathers, Father Brian Higgins C.S.B., former St. Mike's grad, football player and coach, and one time St. Michael's athletic director. Two former St. Michael's grads, chairman of the building fund Michael Duffy and Dennis Mills, Member of Parliament and President of St. Michael's Majors Hockey Club complete it.

This table of St. Michael's teachers, their wives and their friends demonstrate how wide spread is the interest in St. Michael's and its teams. St. Michael's has shown competence in sports in all seasons. St. Michael's teams dominate the so-called major sports of football, hockey, baseball and in basketball. As well in track and field competition St. Michael's has won the TDCAA for fifteen consecutive years and the cross-country for eighteen years. This is a truly wonderful accomplishment nor is there any sign of abatement. St. Michael's continues its winning ways.

The floor of St. Michael's Arena for once devoid of ice was filled with brightly decorated tables and the walls were hung with blow-ups of SMC teams of the past which attracted much attention as grey-haired athletes of past years pointed out to their sons and grandsons the scenes and deeds of their athletic greatness. Father William O'Brien C.S.B. himself a former graduate and teacher of this school reached into the archives of the school and provided the graphic blow-ups which in some cases were enhanced by text and vignettes of various athletes.

Mr. Paul Forbes and his student committees outdid their past fine efforts by the almost continuous string of pictures, decorations and banners that they hung. Mr. Otino Corsano, St. Michael's art teacher, contributed a series of glorious giant portraits of former N.H.L. players who had attended the yellow-brick school.

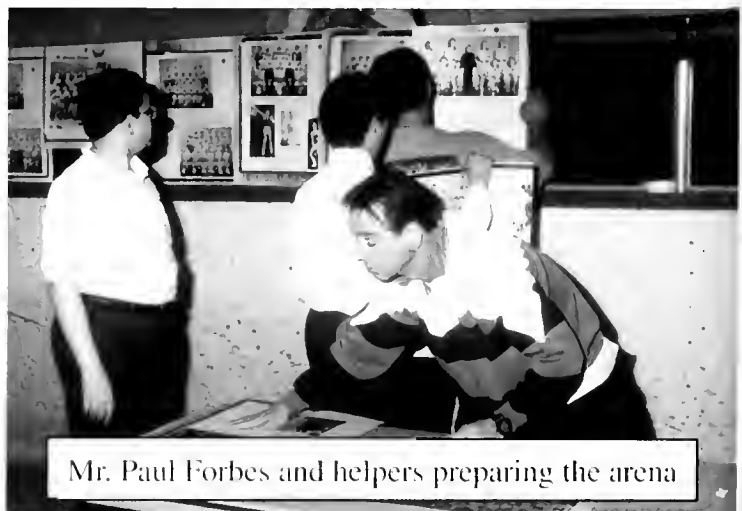

Never was there a more festive atmosphere in the arena than this event. Much credit must be given to Father Mohan, Mr. Dennis Mills, Mr. Michael Boland and Mr. Paul Forbes and to all who took part in making this a truly historic gathering of St. Michael's great athletes. The gathering was truly representative of past and present and encompassed a great variety of grads all bound together by the Basilian tradition.

Mr. Otino Corsano, St. Mike's grad and school art teacher poses in front of one of the series of SMC N.H.L. greats posters which now hang in the arena.

THREE ESTEEMED TEACHERS RETIRE

MR. BARRY MC DERMOTT

His work was with young minds and Mr. Barry McDermott was a student of character in others. In his mind were records no computer could match, like a magician he could pull out of the air facts and records on a variety of topics. It is said that in the heyday of radio he could tell you the call letters of any radio station in Canada. It is no wonder that this quiet oracle held so many responsible posts. He was head of the geography department, head of the bookstore and lately he was the manager of the Arena.

The Arena has always been the shrine of hockey and Barry gave it a brilliance and glow never seen before. When you went into the arena everything was in order, clean and spotless. He was a student of all games and coached St. Michael's teams to victory. His love for baseball was evident in his coaching as his St. Mike's teams became leaders in local high school leagues winning back to back championships, and three successive appearances at Skydome championships. His love for kids and baseball spilled over into Leaside sandlots where he still coaches and inspires others.

Call him a quiet man if you will, but add, a person with a dynamic personality, accomplished in a multitude of areas. A person of such geniality and warmth on his retirement has left a great contribution to St. Mike's

HE MADE DIFFICULT THINGS EASY

MR. GERRY MARLBOROUGH

A St Michael's graduate in 1960

Gerry Marlborough went on to acquire a taste in mathematics and physics. He came back to St. Mike's and stayed to teach for over thirty years. That sums up Mr. Marlborough's life time skills. One of the most popular of teachers at St. Mike's Gerry Marlborough worked in the science and mathematics department. A man with a rich sense of humour and a ready smile he was attuned to the needs of his students. His sincerity and his involvement with their problems provoked a respect and admiration not accorded to all. He came to St. Michael's to teach for over thirty-five years. He had been a student here in his youth. He knew what was needed. One student observed: he made difficult things seem easy and inspired his students to seek higher education. Although head of the Science department with heavy responsibilities he still found time to coach. He was an accomplished athlete. Mr. Marlborough played hockey for the University of Toronto Varsity Blues. He coached all teams from the Buzzers to the Baby Blues imparting the basic techniques of the sport to the pupils he loved to teach. Whether in academics or in athletics, Gerry was a person worthy of the traditions of St. Michael's within and without the classroom.

Father Mc Kinnon Leaves an Artistic Legacy

Father McKinnon announced his retirement as Director of Drama at St. Michael's College at the conclusion of the performances of Little Mary Sunshine this past June. Father McKinnon had been at St. Mike's for the past 35 years where besides his activities in the drama department he was also head of the art department where he taught a large number of courses.

His success as an art teacher is attested to by the large number of students who followed higher studies in this area and have become successful commercial artists, architects and art teachers in our schools.

Father McKinnon did not hesitate to address serious themes in his plays as is shown in such plays as Who's Life Is It Anyways? A Man For All Seasons, Our Town etc. and Father's musicals were always on a grand style and he had the faculty of being able to recognize talent and obtain the maximum dramatic and comic value for what the situation called. Indeed many of his proteges have gone on to careers in professional theatre. Among whom are film makers, TV producers and videographers. Father McKinnon turned to Broadway musicals as a source for great theatre having produced over thirty of them. Each one was done with full orchestral accompaniment in collaboration with Mr. Jon Guerriere of St. Michael's music department and in the past eight years with Mr. Paul Pietrkiewicz.

Father McKinnon made a tremendous contribution to St. Michael's because of his constant insistence that the arts should be part of a high school student's life and although athletics were good - the two were not exclusive.

School clubs and activities give the student a chance to identify with the school community. Socialization is an important part of a student's life, and participation in various organizations gives the student an opportunity to develop contacts. THE ART WORK

Toronto Daily Debater

St. Michael's debaters have a winning season

This years debating season was marred by the "work to rule" campaign of the Separate School teachers. The tournament season was curtailed to a mere three events. St. Mike's however maintained their three tiered approach to become one of the strongest teams in the league. One has to merely point to all the talent on its three teams. In case you have forgotten these teams are: the Novice, the Juniors and the Seniors.

The Juniors were just awesome this year posting an 11-1 record AND TAKING FIRST PLACE AMONG ALL THE SCHOOLS In the McGill tournament. The novice team placed third and were not outclassed boasting an 8-4 record

Our team this year was composed of the following:

Novice Team:

David Bear, Jordan Scopa, Alex Howard, Steve Stoppa, Domenic Gratta, Lawrence Lam, Michael Vitullo, John Oldman, Andrew Krupowicz, Robin Castellino

Junior Team:

Alex Cassar, Lukas Kus, Clarke Tedesco, Ryan Dupuis, Lennie Liscio, Tim Jackson, Yan Olszewski, Yuri Kostowskyj, Alex Reah.

Senior Team:

Claudi Aragon, Kevin De Souza, David Suchon, James Ball, Marc D'Sousa, Sebastian Koper

Royal St. George's Saucer

Classified as "private" the Royal St. George's debate was participated in by Dave Suchon, Jonathan Hyun and Alex Cassar. Dave elaborated on the merits of gluttony and deserves particular attention as having placed first among fifty speakers. As a team the pugnacious threesome successfully refuted the claim that greed is destroying western civilization.

THE PRO-CON LEAGUE HAMPERED BY LACK OF TEAMS

Metro Separate school teachers exercising their right to work to rule had the effect of reducing the number of teams in this all-Ontario debating league. Only three tournaments were held in the Metro area. The seniors worked enthusiastically to make their points but the judges were not leaning towards their arguments. The Seniors can point with pride to a reputable 7-5 season. At this tournament the Junior team placed first with six wins and no losses.

Torontonians Invade Montreal

Debaters join In McGill Tournament

For the second straight year SMC debaters distinguished themselves at this nationally attended parliamentary style high school debate tournament. Sean Richards ranked first among individual debaters from as far west as Winnipeg and as far east as Halifax. Sean and "Deputy Prime Minister" Kevin De Souza had the highest team score among the over 100 teams. Marc De Souza received high marks for his logic and heckling. Sebastian Koper skipped the school van and glided home on VIA Rail. He promised to get us all VIA passes next year. Dave Suchon was noticeably tired during the five hour drive home. Jonathan Hyun, James Ball and Alex Cassar tried to hit Mr. Vella with snow balls during a rest stop in Kingston. Fortunately for Mr. Vella their aim was not like their debating. It was away off the mark - sharpen your aim for next November.

The Blue Lights

Seniors: Guiseppi Galati, Lawrence Lam, James Mangan, Paul Johnson, Andrew Roddy, Andrew Krupowicz, Todd Jackson
Absent: Mike Beauvais

In what was an otherwise year of sweet success, the SMC Senior Blue Lights' incredible season of domination of the trivia circuit ended sourly May 10-12, during the Ontario Reach playoffs. Handicapped by poor judging and even poorer sportsmanship from certain opponents (read "crybabies"), the Dream Team was nonetheless nearly unstoppable in the round robin portion of the tournament, buzzing their way to a first place 9-1 record, and earning a spot in the Final Light Showdown.

Even after the controversial, now infamous protest over "Greek columns" that went against the good guys, the score stood 380-370, for North Dundas. Their season decided by a single question and disheartened drowned their sorrows in chicken wings and "bad clams" later that Sunday evening.

Congratulations and many thanks also to the wonderful Mrs. Pat Boland, dedicated moderator and coach of the the Blue Lights, her third Toronto Championship in only four years.

Senior: Rhain Louis, Pat Tanzola, Ms. Boland, Doug Ng, Kevin DeSouza. Absent Mark Venditti

DEPARTMENT

Mike rushes into action.

(LtoR): Mr. Geniole,
Mike Quaglietta, Wally
Dejneka, Kevin Simon

When ever there is a burnt out light bulb they'll be ready to jump into action. If a TV is missing they'll track it down. They are the men of the AV Department. Unlike other extra curricular activities the school could not function without the efforts of these students. For that we salute them.

K.S. One does the final mixing for the first AV CD.

THOSE WACKY TEACHERS

Yes, they are the men and women who educate us in reading,
'riting, and
'rithmetic while still managing to find time to joke around with the pupils they teach.

Would the parents in the back please stop body surfing it's distracting the tubas.

Hey Mr. Fischer next time put your name on your lunch.

CHAPLAINCY CLUB

The Chaplaincy Club assists the chaplain in his various duties throughout the school. These sometimes require the help of others, such as setting up the auditorium for school masses at regular intervals throughout the year. Our students are very involved with raising food and clothing for the poor. On such occasions the Chaplaincy members combine to motivate the students, run the campaign and see that the dollars and clothing reach their proper destinations. Whenever the chaplain needs help the club members are there for him- the real function of the Chaplaincy Club.

An appalling fact of life in our present day community is the destruction of life in the womb of the mother. The Right to Life Club moderated by Mrs. June Scandiffio is a militant organization that tries to keep the facts of this destruction of human life before the student body.

Members of the club visit other schools on the occasion of organizational meetings, rallies and prayer sessions.

Under the direction of Mr. Ian Thompson these photographers helped to record the school year and the beauty around them with their ready cameras

One of the chief tasks of Mr. Thompson and his photographers is to record the athletic events of the year for viewing at the end of the year athletic banquet. Each year their presentation has grown in quality and scope. Other features, academic and social, are also presented at opportune times , as well as being available for presentations at open house etc.

THE SOCIETY FOR SOCIAL JUSTICE

Mr. Michael Quinn and his group keep us all keenly aware of the imbalance in the world today between the oppressed and the oppressors. Those associated in this group are: (l to r) Michael Lawless, Jonathan Diamond, Michael Pasquale, Mr. M. Quinn, Silvio Cerase, Marc de la Cruz, Alphonse Marchie, Dimitru Onceanu.

Political activity at St Mike's PADDY BROWN SPEARS CLUB'S INITIATIVE

ONE OF THE MOST ACTIVE CLUBS IN ST. MICHAEL'S IS THE PROGRESSIVE CONSERVATIVE CLUB. THIS CLUB AND ITS INFLUENTIAL POSITION IS HIGHLY REGARDED BY THE PROGRESSIVE CONSERVATIVE PARTY OF ONTARIO AND CANADA.

St.Michael's students have embraced this club in great numbers because of its orientation towards the expression of youthful views on the future of Canada. The club hosted a leadership convention to elect their own leadership for the year. The executive who guided the club through 1996-97 were:

President : Paddy Brown

Federal Vice -president : John Cartagena

Secretary: Mike Ash

Social Director: Jermy Bates

Junior Rep.: Yuri Kostoksyki

Membership Director: David Crudele

Appointed Director: Paul Przybylo

Moderator : Mr. D.Fischer

March Break Finds Band Making SMCS Famous in Florida and Bahamas

St. Michael's College School Band under the resourceful and enthusiastic leadership of Mr. Paul Pietrkiewicz accepted an invitation from Disneyworld in Florida to join in the celebration of their twenty-fifth year in existence. During their visit to Florida the band also played in Fort Lauderdale

The trip which entailed a great deal of practice and sharpening of musical skills however had its lighter sides in the visit to the Blue Lagoon Islands while in the Bahamas, and visits to Epcot where they played a concert and of course, the interesting sights of Disneyworld and tour of the Universal Studios Lot.

A relief from the rigors of winter in Canada our band returned from the southern climate darker in skin, lighter in mind (and purse) and very grateful to Mr. Pietrkiewicz, Mr. Oatt and Mr. Vella for their leadership
